WAR ON TEXAS OIL SWINDLERS

U. S. Centers Activities On Fort Worth

$100,000 DAILY LOOT

P. O. Department to Bar 'Glowing' Literature

WASHINGTON, March 30.—All the powers of the federal government will be used in a nationwide campaign against fake stock promoters and other get-rich-quick artists, inaugurated by the department of justice.

With official reports showing that these swindlers are multiplying the American people of approximately $100,000 a day, three other government agencies today joined the department of justice in the campaign.

Fort Worth Center
While the department of justice represented by Assistant Attorney General (Jim) is pressing prosecution of the "blue sky" operators at Fort Worth, Texas, the present center of the swindling industry—the post-office department will redouble its efforts to bar from the mails all fraudulent advertising, particularly the "glowing literature" promising quick riches for small investments.

The federal trade commission which already filed numerous complaints against alleged fraudulent stock promoters plans to extend its investigations in cooperation with the department of justice.

Public Warned
The treasury department today issued a statement warning the public against investing in various kinds of stocks that are favorites of the swindlers.

The statement warned every small investor to be "on guard" and urged the most careful scrutiny of mining, oil, airplane, radio and wireless stocks. It also recommended that people quit buying real estate in distant parts of the country about which they know nothing. Offers of "special inducements" and "hot tips" from the ground floor" generally are a suggestion that some fraud is involved in the stocks for sale, the treasury said.

WHITE WOMAN, NEGRO RAIDED

Vag Charges Filed, Black is Fined $100

POSEY LEMON, a mulatto negro, pleaded guilty in recorder's court here to a charge of vagrancy and was fined $100.

The negro was arrested last night in the 300 block on West, Eighth street, where, according to Officers Bee Cowen and other members of the police department, he was in company with a white woman. The woman also was arrested and conducted to the city jail, where both spent the night.

The white woman's bond was fixed Thursday night following her arrest at $500, which she had not made late today.

According to Officer Cowen, the white woman was unable to obtain counsel to fight her case this morning. She is charged with vagrancy.

Her arrest followed information obtained by the city police department yesterday. Officers were immediately dispatched to her home on Eighth street, where they encountered considerable difficulty in gaining admission.

The negro, fled to an attic upon their approach, where Officers Cowen, Parsley, Siniters and Meyers found him hidden behind a chimney.

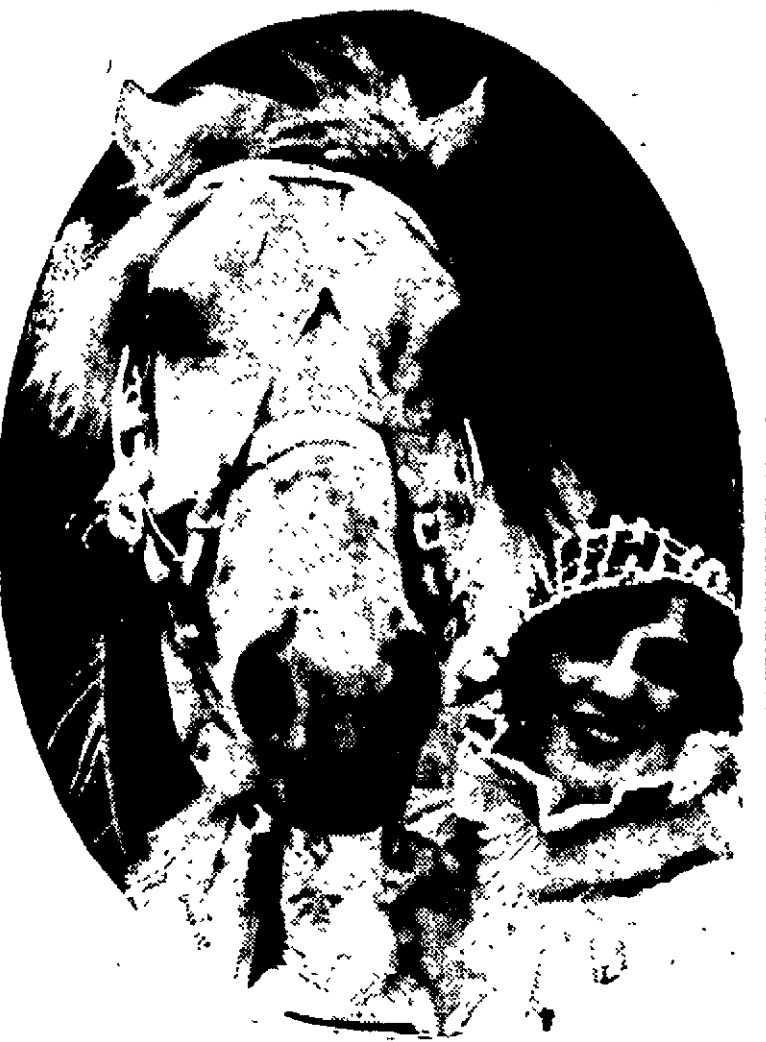

"The doors and windows of the house were barred," Officer Cowen stated this morning. "but we finally effected admission."

Hearing in the woman's case has been set by Judge Ellis for Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock in recorder's court.

JUDGE BELL NAMED TO NEWLY CREATED COURT

AUSTIN, March 30.—Judge J. B. Bell of Teague and Major J. C. Macken of Mexia have been appointed by Governor Neff as judge and district attorney, respectively, of the 88th judicial district, created by the recent session of the legislature. The district is composed of Limestone and Freestone counties. Judge Bell and Major Macken were here today and accepted the appointments. The new court will open its first session at Fairfield, Freestone county, next Monday.

BLOWN 10 FEET AS TANK LETS GO

B. M. Carabin Picks Self Up and Resumes Work

BLOWN 10 feet by the force of an explosion of gasoline fumes in a tank he was welding, B. M. Carabin, owner of a garage at 517 Houston avenue, escaped with minor injuries about 11:15 a. m. today, picked himself up and went back to work.

Carabin had removed the tank from an automobile, emptied all of the gasoline out of it and proceeded to weld it. Fumes in the empty tank exploded when the welding torch struck them, sending Carabin hurtling through the back door of the place.

Another workman in the garage was considerably shaken up by the explosion, but escaped without a scratch.

An ambulance was summoned from the Grammer establishment to the scene of the explosion, but when it arrived Carabin said he wasn't hurt badly enough to go to the hospital.

FIRE WHISTLE TO 'RING' CURFEW

The old curfew that used to ring in the days of long ago. Has been turned into a whistle. And real soon will be blown. —Coffee Club Ballads.

Kiddies, beware!
The city commission and Police Chief M. B. Word'll get you if you don't watch out.

Not long ago, Fire Chief LaRosa appeared before the city commissioners and requested that curfew changes be made in the fire whistle now in use. He wants one loud enough so that everybody can hear it. He's going to get it, too, because after he had consulted with Mayor Pink Logan, the mayor said:

"Tell the newsmen what we were talking about, Mr. LaRosa."

Whereupon the latter turned to face the audience in commission meeting and announced:

"The fire whistle is going to be fixed it once."

What has that got to do with the children being on their guard? Well, immediately after that the mayor announced that:

"The same whistle will be used for a curfew warning, and will be blown every night at 9 o'clock."

And Chief Word is to enforce the curfew law. So, kiddies, beware, go to bed at 9, hereafter—or keep off the streets.

DOPE IN CAKE

Beaumont Man is Held For Smuggling to Prisoner

BEAUMONT, Texas, March 30.—John J. Tuller, federal narcotic agent here, frustrated an attempt to smuggle morphine into the county jail when he examined a cake that had been sent to one of the inmates and found that it contained 2 grams of the drug. The man who brought the cake to the jail was placed under arrest.

REVENUE FUND ON DEFICIENCY

$3,000,000 Transferred to Available School Fund

CASH BASIS YEAR OFF

Solons Criticized For Excessive Appropriations

AUSTIN, March 30.—With the transfer today of $3,000,000 from the general revenue fund to the available school fund, in accordance with the attorney general's opinion rendered late yesterday, the general revenue fund went on a deficiency basis today.

According to treasury officials it may be a year or even longer before the general revenue returns to a cash basis.

Warrants Held Up
No warrants were cashed at the treasury today and all state payroll warrants which will be issued tomorrow for March salaries, will be turned down by the treasury, it was said.

At the time the transfer of the $3,000,000 emergency school appropriation was made this morning there was approximately $8,800,000 balance in the general revenue fund, and the transfer reduced the balance to $5,800,000. This is to be further reduced by the regular monthly transfer to the available school fund of school taxes and the school's share of gross receipts taxes, a total of $4,750,000 for this month; also the transfer of $600,000 to the confederate pension fund, and the further transfer of $141,000 to the state fire insurance commission's account, making a grand total of $8,491,000 of transfers, and leaving a balance of $340,000 which is to be paid to the prison commission in part payment of the $600,000 emergency appropriation made by the recent regular session to aid the prison system until the gathering of the cotton crop from state farms next fall.

Legislators Criticized
Throughout the state capital criticism is being passed on the legislature in making excessive appropriations at the regular session and full responsibility for the present deficiency is placed on the shoulders of the law makers.

Dr. H. H. Harrington, member of the state board of control, and in charge of the purchasing of supplies for the various state institutions, regards the deficiency as deplorable, stating that it will work a great hardship on his department and the taxpayers of the state. The board of control recently let a number of contracts for supplies, the bids having been made on a cash basis. With the treasury on a deficiency for a long period, the board fears that many of the contractors will cancel their contracts. This would necessitate a call for new bids, and prices offered would be following a lingering illness.

FATHER HELD

Dallas Man Charged With Assault to Kill Girl

DALLAS, March 30.—John T. Murray, carpenter, was held on a formal charge of assault to murder, following the wounding of his daughter, Mabel Carey Murray, 22, at their home here yesterday.

Complaints charging criminal assault and incest were also filed against the man, his younger daughter, Lalol, being named in these.

The wounded girl is expected to recover.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Ed Hulbert, president of the Corn Exchange National bank and prominent financial expert, died at his home here today following a lingering illness.

Touch of Chloroform in Denatured Alcohol Helps Make World Go 'Round

CLEBURNE, March 30.—A mixture of denatured alcohol and chloroform is being used here to take the place of whisky. Constable Beecher announced following seizure of several bottles of this mixture on the persons of alleged vagrants.

BOY DIGS UP BURIED BOOZE

Lad Turned Over to Probation Officer

Deputy Sheriff John Foote and Police Chief M. B. Word were busy in the vicinity of Port Arthur Thursday hunting down bootleggers.

Their work resulted in the arrest of two men, and the discovery of one case which was turned over to probation officers. In each case, whisky of "the smelly" corn variety" was located.

In the 400 block on West Sixteenth street, a man attempted to destroy evidences of three gallons of illicit liquor when the officers entered the place, while the same incident occurred on Houston avenue as they entered another home.

"We got whisky from both, though," the chief explained, "when we took it upon ourselves to mop up the floors with towels and squeeze the remnants into a receptacle."

The most peculiar case encountered by the officers was at El Vista, near Port Arthur, where the officers watched a 10-year-old boy dig up a quart of "juicy corn" from the front yard and attempt to break the bottle.

"We turned the case over to the probation officer, who is investigating," the chief stated later.

The boy, it is understood, has never attended a public school.

HOWARD-KENYON GIVEN CONTRACT

60,000 Cubic Yards of Dirt Involved in Program

Contract for dredging work to be conducted here in the immediate future was awarded by the city commission yesterday to the Howard-Kenyon Dredging company.

The matter, placed in the hands of the commission after Engineer Rollin had examined the bid for Howard-Kenyon company by W. L. Penny, of that firm, was awarded by the dredging company upon passage of a motion presented by Mayor J. P. Logan, with a second in Commissioner B. J. Wade.

The dredging company will do all the work except that to be done on Gramms, San Antonio and Railroad avenues.

"This work is shallow dredging," Mayor Logan explained, when presenting his motion yesterday afternoon. "and the city can do that with its own machine."

Between 50,000 and 60,000 cubic yards of dirt are to be removed under the program, the Howard-Kenyon company to remove approximately 45,000 cubic yards under their contract.

Bill Fixing Maximum Speed Limit on County Highways is Approved

AUSTIN, Texas, March 30.—Three bills approved and filed by the governor today included the measure fixing the maximum speed of motor vehicles on county highways at thirty-five miles an hour against the present twenty-five mile limit. The bill becomes effective June 12. Another bill approved and filed which becomes effective immediately provides for a second assistant attorney general to prosecute cases in the court of criminal appeals and increasing the salary of the first assistant.

LIONS TO LAUNCH MEMBER DRIVE

Committee Named to Scout 'Jungle' Here

Lions in Port Arthur will launch a membership drive, according to an announcement made at their luncheon at the Plaza hotel today by J. L. Dunn, president. The following members of the club were appointed on a committee to scout the city for additional Lions:

C. B. Keener, E. E. Stuckey, Dr. J. C. Carr, G. C. Weidell and E. L. Vaughan.

A request for additional equipment for the ward at Mary Gates hospital which the Lions Club furnished last year was read at today's meeting and referred to the board of directors.

Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, president of the fourth district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, spoke before the Lions on birth registration, urging that influence be brought to bear to improve the system in Texas.

Miss Ruby Edmunds, expression teacher in Franklin school, entertained the Lions with two readings. The luncheon meeting was brought to a close by a number of songs, under the direction of Song Leader Pichee of Community Service.

FAST TRAIN DERAILED WHEN BRAKES ARE SET

Late, Train Was Racing at 70 Miles An Hour

OTHERS MAY DIE

Engine Turns Turtle, Auto is Demolished

COLUMBUS, O., March 30.—Six are known dead and probably a dozen were injured in the wreck of a Big Four limited passenger train, which crashed into an automobile today at Clintonville, a suburb north of here.

The Dead
JOHN K. LEE, Cleveland, fireman of the locomotive.
EARL WILSON, Columbus, traveling fireman.
HORACE HOLBROOK, Warren, editor Warren Democrat.
MRS. FRANK HEMMING, Columbus, driving the auto.
Two children of Mrs. Hemminger.

Auto Stalled
The speeding train was making up lost time. The automobile suddenly jerked onto the crossing and stalled for an instant—then the crash.

The engineer applied all his brakes. Stopping so suddenly, the entire train was derailed. The locomotive buried itself in the roadbed and the next four cars overturned and piled up.

The train was racing at a speed estimated at 70 miles an hour at the crossing. It was one of the best operated by the Big Four between Cleveland and Columbus. The wreckage of the automobile was carried several hundred yards on the locomotive before it was overturned. A man, woman and child in the automobile were instantly killed, as was the fireman of the locomotive.

Woman Driver
The auto was driven by Mrs. Hemminger, who had just started with her two children on a trip to Lima, Ohio. All three were instantly crushed and killed.

Many of the 108 passengers were injured, some seriously. All available cars were rushed to the scene and the hurt were taken to Columbus hospitals.

Both Engineer Green and Fireman Seibert were scalped.

Others May Die
Others of the injured are expected to die. How Green and Seibert escaped with their lives appeared a miracle, as their engine turned completely over as it left the tracks. Four men were in the cab when the crash came.

Some of the cars turned over as they landed in a heap but those in the rear landed upright at the side of the track.

One thousand feet of track on the Big Four main line were torn up. The cab of the locomotive was ripped off and scalding steam released from the boiler. H. A. Slayton, pullman conductor, was standing in the rear car. He said the impact was so great that seats and other objects were ripped loose and hurled through side of the coach.

It was some time after the wreck before some of the bodies could be identified.

Asa Groves Accorded Full Masonic Honors

Funeral services for Asa E. Groves, 51, pioneer Port Arthurian and prominent local estate man, were conducted at 1 o'clock this afternoon from the funeral home of First Methodist church, 2121 Broadway, by Rev. W. L. Smith, pastor.

Burial was made in Magnolia Cemetery, Beaumont, under the direction of J. E. Grammer, undertaker, with full Masonic honors accorded at the grave.

Active pall bearers were Henry Lohman, W. V. Craig, Dr. Pat Reed, L. G. Stump, A. C. Reiche, and C. S. Flanagan; and honorary pall bearers were R. H. Dunn, Dr. A. D. Smith, J. P. Logan, George Imhoff, Louis S. McGuire, W. T. Hooker, V. J. Birch, Eugene Lambert, C. E. Boaz, A. E. Rung, P. H. Balzeron, Charles Frakes, Kirby Smith, Leo Craig and Harry F. Barker.

EASTER HATS AND GARB REFLECT SPIRIT OF SPRING

FRIDAY—IF SUN PEEPS OUT

The goddess of spring, could not have been arrayed in more wonderful finery in her day than will be Port Arthur's "Easter morn" for the very spirit of the season will be suggested in the smart Easter outfits, which are being worn on Easter Sunday if the sun peeps from behind a cloud and permits the Easter finery to be shown without being covered by wraps.

It is the keynote of the Easter styles. One may wear as long as it has a dash of color.

The type of costume however depends largely upon the conditions on Easter day. If a "norther" does not show up before Sunday and the sun continues to shine as brightly as it has today one can stroll down the streets and to church without a wrap.

However, many women are simply buying a new frock and bonnet as they feel it is not yet safe to doff the winter furs; and others are buying suits of the three-piece variety. Many feel that if they wear a new hat and a corsage of orchids, lilies of the valley or violets with the winter costume they are ready for the Easter fashion parade.

Others who take Easter finery more seriously are planning frocks of light tans and grays, which are the most favored colors for the more youthful models.

While the white glove will be popular for Easter wear, there is also an attempt to match the glove with the shoe where light colored shoes are worn.

Flowered hats and hulk with or with feather trimming, a shade lighter or darker than the hat material, are being shown a great deal in the shops and promise to be everywhere in evidence on Easter day.

It is curious to watch the evolution of the flapper. This Easter she is an entirely new person. Instead of the turned up back of last season which reached upon one ear she is wearing hats of cloche or mushroom shape which are almost brimless in back and they sit perfectly straight upon her head. She has discarded woolen hosiery of vivid color for silk of gray or tan which she wears with matching suede shoes. Her shoes are not strictly of the sports variety, but usually have some semblance of heels. One-strap pumps are popular with her.

TYPICAL EASTER BAZAARS, where handsome hand-made articles and practical accessories are being sold, are being held downtown in the lobbies of various establishments by church organizations both today and tomorrow.

Today St. George's Episcopal Guild is holding a bazaar in the lobby of the McMillen and Glass drug store, where Easter eggs and baskets and other Easter novelties are on display. The sale began this morning at 10:30 o'clock and will continue through the day until all the articles have been disposed of.

Tomorrow morning, beginning at 8 o'clock, Circle Seven of the Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church, South, will hold an Easter sale in the lobby of the Peoples Theater. Easter eggs, early adorned with vivid colors, and attractive aprons will be on sale on this occasion.

In the Crowell-Gifford lobby Circle Six of the First M. E. Church, South, Missionary Society will hold another Easter sale, beginning at 10 o'clock. Home made candies, cakes, and pieces of bungalow aprons and other attractive articles will be on sale in addition to the Easter eggs.

Easter eggs, cakes, candies, and many lovely pieces of fancy work will be sold at the sale in the lobby of Deuter's new building, which will be conducted by Circle Three of the First M. E. Church, South, Missionary Society tomorrow morning beginning at 10 o'clock and continuing throughout the day.

The proceeds from the last three sales will go toward the building fund of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

A LOVELY HOSPITALITY OF Wednesday was the attractively arranged one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Howard M. Smith, with Miss Eva Butler will entertain the Linger Longer Sewing Club at her home on DeQueen boulevard.

Circle Three of the Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church, South, will hold an Easter sale in the new Deuter building lobby, beginning at 10 o'clock.

Circle Six of the First M. E. Church, South, Missionary society will hold a bazaar in Crowell-Gifford lobby, beginning at 10 o'clock.

The Young Peoples Service League of St. George's Episcopal church will give an Easter Egg hunt to Episcopal Sunday School children at Mrs. Don Allen's home, 5230 Procter street, 3 to 6 o'clock.

Circle Seven of First M. E. Church, South, will hold an Easter sale in lobby of Peoples Theater, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Smith, Mrs. George Imhoff, Miss Marian Weir and Mrs. M. J. Fainton as hostesses.

A charming Easter motif was displayed in the luncheon table appointments, where an effective yellow and purple scheme was featured in lovely manner. A few bowls of violets gave the central decoration for the table and the yellow tapers in crystal holders accentuated the favored motif.

Dainty Easter favors served as place cards for the guests. A tempting two course luncheon was served.

Covers were laid for Mrs. J. E. Higgins, Mrs. Sydney C. Collins, Mrs. W. N. McInerney, Mrs. Joe Park, Mrs. A. R. Aubrey, Mrs. M. Swearingen, Mrs. Ed Vaughan, Mrs. George Imhoff, Mrs. M. J. Panton, Miss Miriam Weir of Liverpool, England, and Mrs. Howard M. Smith.

AN INTERESTING WEDDING of the spring season took place last evening at 9 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Oeschger on Beaumont avenue when Miss Marguerite Bodeaux became the bride of Mr. C. H. Stokes, with services read by Dr. Oeschger.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of Mrs. S. A. Bodeaux, mother of the bride; Frances Bodeaux, Mr. and Mrs. Hammack and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kizer.

Both of the young people have lived in Port Arthur a number of years. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bodeaux of 1401 Tenth street and was reared in Port Arthur. She has been in the employ of the Lone Star Transfer company as bookkeeper some time. Mr. Stokes is serving in a similar capacity for the J. Imhoff & Son company.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes after a short wedding trip will return to Port Arthur and make their home at 720 Waco avenue.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR Society of the First Christian church will observe Open House at the First Christian church Sunday evening from 5:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

Informality will mark the open house and a good fellowship period will be enjoyed. Delicious refreshments will be served.

Following the open house, interesting programs on "The Easter Psalm" will be rendered at both the Senior and Intermediate Society meetings at 6:30 o'clock.

A cordial invitation is extended to all the Endeavorers and their friends to attend the Open House Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock.

CHOIR REHEARSAL WILL BE held at the First Methodist Episcopal church this evening at 6:30 o'clock. Miss Hortense Smith, director, announced this morning.

The choir will rehearse the Easter Cantata, and a full attendance is desired.

Music Service at the First M. E. Church to Feature Music Week

An elaborate musical service will be given this evening at the First Methodist Episcopal church as the feature event of the second day of "Music Week."

A descriptive song service, embodying the principal characters and events of the Last Supper, the arrest, trial and crucifixion of Jesus Christ, will be given by the choir, under the direction of Miss Hortense Smith, as Rev. W. E. Blackstock depicts each scene.

The public is invited to attend the service this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

FANCY PARASOL. A lovely new parasol for spring is of pink satin, and all the framework of the sunshade is covered with pivoted ribbon of a deeper rose. The face that wouldn't be flattered by such a background is an ungrateful one.

By this time, the waistline has definitely come up in the world and is getting seriously near to normal again. Some designers are preparing to launch the short, empire line once more.

Would You Be Beautiful? Beauty has been the quest of all ages. Thousands of lovely women attribute their beauty to the use of Nadine Face Powder. The cheeks have just a tint of color—the skin can only be equalled by the soft texture of a rose petal.

Nadine will keep the roses in your cheeks. It will adhere and protect the skin from the sun, wind and dust. It contains no white lead or other ingredient to harm the skin or the eyes. It's the same pure powder, popular for so many years—only the box and fragrance have been improved.

SENIOR CLASS TESTS FACULTY

Students Say They "Pulled" Some Record Boneheads

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 26.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll is a "democratic statesman" and a "world war hero," Al Johnson is a "wrestling champion," and "Boob McNutt" is the "heavyweight champion of the world."

Thus saith members of the faculty of Newcomb College, a young woman's school here, in their answers to an "intelligence test" submitted to them by the senior class of the institution.

The test was presented to the teachers after they had given the students an examination to determine their knowledge of every day subjects. After the students had completed the examination, they challenged the teachers to a similar test and 23 of the faculty accepted.

In addition to the above answers, the results, made public recently, showed the faculty believed that:

Beatrice Fairfax is a movie actress and that Lot was "a man in the Bible associated with a salty wife."

Requius is a variety of fish and brilliantine is a preparation "that young ladies put on their eyes to make them shine."

"Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Sheen" (of vaudeville fame) are in the transfer business in New Orleans, but one instructor declared they were a modern day version of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

The trade name of a widely known food preparation is the name of the wife of a character in the Bible and the trade name of a popular cosmetic is the name of a cabaret dancer.

Marschino, the cherry, is the name of a "Premier of Russia before war" and "Fillet Mignon" is an opera by Puccini.

"Picking Cherries," the name of a dance show the rage among New Orleans younger social set, is another more than gathering fruit," one still faculty member said and another, perhaps more sophisticated, said it was "a slang term for petting."

BOLERO FASHIONABLE. The bolero grows in favor as the season advances, and is having a strong influence on the two-piece suit. Frequently it is seen to best advantage with one of the new tiered skirts.

Household Suggestions SLICING ONIONS. Slice onions under a running faucet. This will remove the color from the hands and keep the fumes from irritating the eyes.

TO PREVENT FADING. A little borax added to the water in which colored clothes are to be washed will set the color and prevent fading.

QUICK RESULTS. If you wish to heat water quickly put it into a wide bottomed pan.

PERFUME LAMPS. No boudoir is complete these days without its perfume burner, a combination of electric lamp and incense burner. They come in the most fascinating shapes and colors and a variety of sizes.

WITH LACE FRILLS. A most attractive gown is of carmel-colored chambray, with a front skirt drapery and wide frills of cream-colored lace about the neck and falling from the long, tight sleeves.

LANES PLANNED FOR OCEAN MAILS

Planned in London as Solution For Speed

LONDON, March 30.—Miles air-ways with folding wings, specially designed tubular cases instead of cars and tremendous speed are being planned in England as the solution of the problem of sluggish transatlantic mail service.

These baby planes would be held in port hours after the sailing of the giant liner, according to the plan. Meanwhile life letters, urgent news and important documents of the world would be received and made ready for airmail transmission.

The plane would begin its race for the departing liner when the liner had proceeded five hundred or more miles upon its way. Tremendous speed and continuous wireless direction would simplify the chase, leaving to the plane for a few minutes, the time to lift the aerial to its full, sheath it in its steel case and speed. Within anything less than a thousand miles of the port of destination the little flyer would be released, again loaded with urgent mail and sent in to land.

The scheme it is said, would clip time from the present mail schedules.

Negro Assailant of LeFleur Gets 5 Years

BEAUMONT, Texas, March 30.—Other negro, was given 5 years in the penitentiary by a jury in the district court yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault with intent to murder. It was alleged in indictment that the defendant, September 23, 1922, assaulted and attempted to kill Martin E. LeFleur, a white man, of Port Arthur, who makes a total of 14 penitentiary sentences imposed during the last term of district court.

97 PLAINTIFFS WIN IN SUIT FOR LAND TITLE

Special to the News.
BEAUMONT, Texas, March 30.—In point of number of parties interested, the most important suit ever disposed of in the 6th district court was brought to a close yesterday when J. M. Clayton and 96 other plaintiffs secured judgment against the Northwestern Lumber company of New Jersey to title to 3,000 acres of land in Tyler county and damages in the sum of $3000. Damages to the individual run all the way from $1 to $100.

4 SEAMEN DIE

5 Others in Hospital After Tug Capsizes

ELIZABETH CITY, N. J., March 30.—Four men lost their lives and five others are in a hospital here today suffering from exposure as a result of the capsizing of the tug Julian Blewett in Albemarle Sound yesterday during a high gale. The dead are: Captain Clyde Walker; First Mate William B. Gray; Vernon Leach, of Norfolk, Va.; and Garland Chance, a negro cook. The men died from cold and exposure to the sea which swept along the Atlantic coast yesterday.

The others of the crew were almost unconscious when rescued by the steamer Annie L. Van Senter.

COL. GREEN, 55, SHEDS 15 YEARS

Former Texan Drinks at the Fountain of Youth

NEW YORK, March 30.—Colonel Edward H. Green, 55, son of the late Betty Green, has been made to feel 15 years younger by a Steinach rejuvenation operation to which he submitted last month. It was disclosed today.

The operation—originated by Professor Eugene Steinach of Vienna—was performed by Dr. Henry S. Pascal at St. Elizabeth's hospital.

It caused Green to be laid up for a week in the hospital and for a short time thereafter at his apartment, Dr. Pascal said.

Then he went on a Florida cruise with his wife in the houseboat "Plover," lately used by President Harding, and in a letter to a New York friend stated he felt better than at any time during the last 15 years.

The Steinach method, which does not involve monkey glands or anything of that kind, was first heard of in this country when Dr. Adolf Lorenz, the noted specialist, announced that he had undergone it. Shortly thereafter friends noted a decided change for the better in the distinguished surgeon's appearance.

The Steinach system consists of a minor operation on a gland duct whereby the secretion is revived and strengthened.

Steinach contends that this retards the approach of old age.

Colonel Green owns large holdings in Texas. He also inherited half the estate of his mother and is rated very wealthy.

AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

On their way to the Cut-Out Lady's house in Sugar-Plum Land, the Twins heard something go "Mew, mew, mew!" It was the Silk-Stocking Cat with the braided tail.

No, the Silk-Stocking Cat is nothing like Puss-in-Boots, but gets his name because he is made out of the top of a silk stocking, and stuffed with soft cotton.

"Oh, oh, oh!" he mewed. "I wish I could, but I can't but I wish I could!"

"Could what?" asked Nancy feeling sorry for the poor thing.

"Climb," said the cat blinking his yarn eyes sorrowfully and making his yarn mustache wiggle up and down.

"Well, can't you?" asked Nancy.

"Don't ask foolish questions, please!" remarked the cat. "Haven't you any eyes? Don't you see that my toenails are made of yarn, too? They are only sewed-on. How can I climb a tree?"

"But what's the difference?" asked Nancy. "You don't have to climb trees, do you?"

"No, but just look at the trees!" mewed the Silk-Stocking Cat. "Simply full of things! Gummi cookies, sparrows, and lemon cookie canaries, and chocolate chickens, 'n' everything."

"I suppose they make you hungry," said Nancy. "But what good would it do you if you did have real toenails and could climb the trees?"

"Good! What good would it do if you were starving and were suddenly set down to a table piled up with goodies? Good, indeed!"

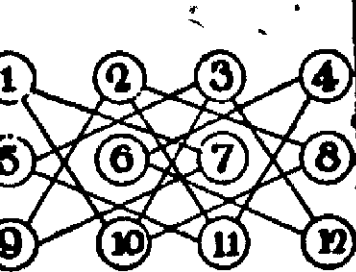

"But you can't open your mouth to eat!" went on Nancy. "How can you eat when your mouth is made of yarn just like your toes? People with yarn mouths don't need to eat anything but cotton and I don't think you are starved at all. Your tummy sticks away out and you look as fat as butter."

The Silk-Stocking Cat began to mew. "You are right, my dear," he mewed pleasantly, wiggling his yarn mustache.

A PUZZLE A DAY

The value of a hat, a shirt, and a pair of shoes, added together, give the value of a pair of shoes, $47.50. If the price of the hat, the shirt, and the socks are multiplied together, the result is again the value of the shoes. The hat and the shirt are both worth the same what is the price of the various articles?

Yesterday's answer:

The course from 1 to 12, following the lines in the diagram, and touching every circle once only, is as follows: 1 to 7, to 9, to 2, to 8, to 10, to 3, to 5, to 11, to 4, to 6, to 12.

Woman's League to Hold Its Sessions In Mexico's Capitol

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, March 20.—The first Pan-American League of Women will be held in this city from May 20-30.

A large number of women from all parts of the United States are expected to take part in the convention. Subjects to be taken up include:

"Women as a worker for the support of the home"; "Social problem of the woman who wants to obtain her economic independence"; "Woman as a social administrator of the home"; "Child welfare"; "Protection for woman"; "Social service for the community"; "Should woman adopt the same social form—syndicalist or league of resistance—in which men are grouped?"; and "Sex education."

Another subject which will be discussed is the "Theory of Non-Resistance." The question put to the delegates will be as follows: "Can peaceful means take the place of violence for the solution of any problem whatsoever, as a political weapon, and in social economic and international questions?"

Political questions will also be taken up. International problems to be discussed include:

"Have the women of all nations of the world, as women, the same interests to defend?"

"Total disarmament."

"How best to make known the thoughts of the women of other countries."

Neff Signs Measure For Merging 5 Lines

AUSTIN, March 20.—The bill authorizing the merging of the International Great Northern railroad company and four other Texas railroads with the St. Louis, San Francisco and Texas Railway company was approved and signed by Governor Pat Neff today and became effective immediately.

Other railroads in the merger are the Fort Worth and Rio Grande; Brownwood North and South; Quanah, Acme and Pacific; and Paris and Great Northern.

Kissed By Lafayette, French Woman Still Lives at Age of 104

PARIS, March 20.—There is a woman living in France today who was kissed by Lafayette.

Looking back over a life that has roiled the entire mark, Mme. Gailard, whose spiritfulness of mind has not suffered in the passage of the years, recalls many stirring and tragic episodes in the history of France, but there is one moment treasured, beyond all others in her memory. It takes her back four years and thirteen years when she was Catherine, Virginie Chatonier, a little girl of ten, an orphan, brought up in the household of friends of her parents, M. and Mme. Mousard, who kept a hotel in Issoude, in the department of Haute Loire.

France had just gone through a revolution—it was in 1790—and the provisional government had appointed the Marquis de Lafayette commander-in-chief of the national guard, then in process of formation. The hero of the Franco-American entente was giving a visit of inspection to the troops in his native department and the authorities arranged a banquet in his honor. It was given at the hotel kept by the Mousards.

Houseside mindful of the historic role played by Lafayette, gave the place of honor on the menu to an elaborate cake representing a backwoods cabin, surrounded with miniature trees and stately banners. Some of the notabilities were invited to accompany the guest of honor to take a seat at the tables spread for the feast.

Catherine slipped in with them. "From the marvelous new cake," Mme. Gailard, "he burst into tears quite near him. I looked at him and said: 'Why, sir, why are you crying?' M. Mousard was seated next to me. He was married and had two children.

"I was born Aug. 24, 1773," he said, "a few miles from here. He was married and had two children.

"I was born Aug. 24, 1773," he said, "a few miles from here. He was married and had two children.

"I was born Aug. 24, 1773," he said, "a few miles from here. He was married and had two children.

CAPTAIN'S MESS BOY SPENT COOL MILLION A DAY—BUT IT WAS IN MARKS AS A "FAIRY" GUEST

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—Most every boy and girl in America at sometime has sat out on the balcony of the apartment house or somewhere and said:

"Wish I had a million dollars—I'd go to the show and buy candy and—"

Well, everyone knows how it goes. And over in Germany boy and girls aren't much different down deep in their hearts than they are in America perhaps.

With this exception—Reinhardt Schmitt, age 21, of Hamburg, Germany, captain's mess boy on the German steamer Hans Heusch, has had his wish come true.

When he was back in Germany he did his wishing—only, of course, in wishful for marks instead of dollars.

Then he came to San Francisco and out stepped a fairy of something found himself in the midst of it.

A newspaper reporter found Reinhardt interesting. He told his story. And as a result a girl reporter was assigned to give Reinhardt one no more day.

The lad was running around the decks of the big freighter which has been his home for months. He had the mate stopped him and told him that for the day he was to have champagne and be the guest of the first lady who arrived at the gangplank.

Bewildered but anxious to get on with the day started Reinhardt to do as he pleased. And the day would foot the bill.

It started with candy at the ferry building.

Then a ride through the city in a luxurious sedan—the likes of which Reinhardt had never seen.

Then to a store for a pair of good, American shoes to replace the wooden ones he wore. Then a lunch at the city's most fashionable hotel—the first fruit he had tasted for 2 1/2 months.

Was served him in a lunch of meat, omelette, soup, chicken, apple pie, with ice cream, a quantity of milk.

Drank Bottles of Milk.

"I drank no alcohol," he announced in German. "But milk, at home it is so expensive." He reached in bottles of it.

Then a trip to the town's tallest building in the city and, next, on to the beach to the roller-skating rink—merry-go-round and all the other wonders.

Reinhardt was gaining his pace and he hardly could wait for each successive thrill.

"Powder River-better back," he shouted in his funny English, as he mounted a pony on the merry-go-round and waved his cap, contented.

No satisfactory explanation could be secured as to where he picked up the phrase, but it was good evidence that somewhere back in the days of the war he had met someone who knew something of the Ninety-Fast.

YOUR BODY NEEDS "HOUSE-CLEANING"

IT'S spring house-cleaning time—and your body needs it as much as your home. Your blood is sluggish and clogged with impurities, your vitality is low, you are weak, flabby, and easily tired.

Let Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the most effective spring tonic known, purify your blood, tone up your system, and start you off for the spring ready and fit for every task and every pleasure.

HALPIN OUSTED AS CONSTABLE

H. D. Morse, Formerly of Here is Successor

Acting upon proceedings instituted by members of the grand jury in the 58th district court, District Judge Geo. C. O'Brien yesterday afternoon suspended H. F. Halpin, constable from Precinct No. 1, H. D. Morse, Jr., deputy sheriff under Tom Garner, and a former Port Arthur man, was appointed constable pending the outcome of the suit. His bond was fixed at $2000, "conditioned that Morse will pay the respondent all damages and costs that Halpin may sustain by reason of his suspension from office, in case it should appear that Halpin was induced by the present grand jury on a charge of attempting bribery, and his case is set down for hearing on Monday, April 10, at 9 o'clock. In addition to the charge of attempting to bribe Justice of the Peace H. H. Reeves, the grand jury filed nine additional complaints charging irregular conduct in office. Halpin declares that he will be able to refute the charges.

INDIAN WAR HAS 'MOVIE' COLOR

PIUTE INDIANS ENGAGED IN WARFARE AGAINST WHITES IN UTAH. INDIAN AT RIGHT ABOVE IS "BISHOP'S BOY" WHOSE ARREST CAUSED THE WAR AND WHO LATER WAS KILLED. INSET SHOWS UNITED STATES MARSHAL J. RAY WARD.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 20.—All the picturesque features that characterize Indian warfare as depicted in "penny dreadfuls" and Wild West movies have been resurrected in what is probably America's last Indian war, now being ended in the mountainous near here.

"Old Posey," reputed leader of the warring Piutes an Utes, took part in warfare against the whites when the west was young.

He is said to have surrounded himself with a body of old-time scalpers who are ready to amputate the hair of any whites that come within their grasp.

War paint and the traditional war attire of the tribes is being used. Fighting on both sides is being carried out on both sides, stumps and rocks. The locale of the battle is the wildest part of the Utah Mountains.

But this last flash of insurrection on the part of the fast vanishing redskins is doomed to failure. For even now the mountains have been wiped almost clean of renegade redskins by possees under the direction of United States Marshal J. Ray Ward.

There have been frequent clashes between the settlers and the Indians of San Juan county during the last few years and now the settlers are determined to rid the country of the Indian menace.

The present trouble started when "Old Dutch's Boy" and "Dutch's Boy" were seized for robbing a sheep camp. The Piute Indians surrounded the village of Blanding, opened fire on the town and rescued the two youths.

Later "Bishop's Boy" was shot and killed by the white posse. Formerly the Indians of Utah camped close to Salt Lake City and were seen frequently in the streets. Gradually they retreated and were placed on reservation.

The Old Posey gang, composed largely of young renegades from several tribes as well as the Piute and Ute, never stayed long on the reservation.

ELASTIC LEAGUE MEET HOLD HERE APRIL 20-21 NATION CONTEST TONIGHT

Representative League District 10 will be held here on April 20-21.

Each contestant and family is to be accompanied by a high school in the district to determine representation in the literary contest of the district. Eight districts will participate in the contest and will send representatives from their schools to take part in the literary and sports contests.

Paul Hanchett and Jennie Mullen will represent Port Arthur High school in the girls' debating contest. They were chosen as representatives yesterday afternoon in the final girls' debate held at the high school, with Rev. W. E. Blackstock, Rev. T. Alvis Davis, Raymond Murray and William T. Donaldson as judges.

The boys' debate will be held this afternoon. Three teams will take part in the debate, which promises to be hotly contested.

Finals in the declamations will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at High school auditorium. The public is invited to attend and show the students how they stand "back of them" and how necessary it is for Port Arthur to win out in the district meet. No admission fee will be charged for the declamations.

Eight contestants will declaim in the boys' contest and six in the girls.

Violin solos will be rendered this evening while the judges are making the decisions. Helen Johnson and Cota Walker, pupils of Prof. Keim, will render the violin numbers.

Essay writing contest will be held soon to determine the best essays. Fifteen pupils will take part in the essay writing contest.

Big Moment For Louie Guisto Arrives

LAKELAND, Fla., March 30.—The big moment has finally arrived in the baseball career of First Baseman Louie Guisto.

Guisto will start the 1934 season as the regular first baseman of the Indians. It will be his first real opportunity.

Manager Speaker has told Guisto that first base belongs to him, that he has no opposition for the bag, and that it is up to him to prove Speaker has made no mistake in the final selection.

For six years Guisto has been the property of the Cleveland baseball club. He came to the Indians through the trade with the Boston Red Sox.

Hard luck has handicapped Guisto from the very start. Illness, injury and the world war all played a part in giving him a black eye as a big league star.

This is the big year for Guisto. It is up to him to make the most of it. The first evidence of Speaker's faith in Guisto to deliver was the giving of an unconditional release to "Stuffy" McInnis, Speaker, who has the courage of his convictions in all things, and the first big problem in this manner.

McInnis is a veteran with only a few good years left. Guisto is many years younger, is a wonderful fielder and should hit.

"The Cleveland club thinks so well of him that he has been carried on the payroll for six years. The time has arrived for him to be regarded as a regular or out horse."

"I feel that he has the makings of a regular. I have given him undisturbed possession of the bag to increase his confidence to appreciate to its fullest his worth."

There is Speaker's line of reasoning on Guisto and it certainly seems mighty logical.

It's now up to Guisto to cash in on the big opportunity.

Says the U. S. Government Should Be Overthrown

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., March 30.—The present government of the United States should be overthrown and a dictatorship of the proletariat established, William Z. Foster declared today in testifying in his trial on charges of violation of the Smith act, a federal law.

O. L. Smith, prosecuting attorney, cross-examined Foster, asked:

"Do you not think that to correct conditions the present government of the United States should be overthrown and a dictatorship of the proletariat such as in Russia established?"

"Yes," Foster replied. "However, just what followed in Russia would not necessarily follow in the United States under such a dictatorship."

PLAN TO CORK UP MARINE LOSSES

Cabinet to Discuss Measures Soon

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 30.—A concrete plan to stop losses of the shipping board and stimulate the American merchant marine will be taken up by the cabinet as soon as President Harding returns to Washington. This plan—to be taken in view in the expiring congress—is to take of the failure of the ship subsidy bill the government entirely out of the shipping business. It was learned today.

The Conditions

The government would sell its huge fleet of ships on the following condition:

1.—An agreement by private buyers to keep necessary routes of trade open.

2.—Point out to buyers the routes most fertile in prospects which would not hurt trade conditions at present.

3.—Willingness of the operators to develop new markets and routes.

Lasker's Proposal

This plan is understood to have been prepared for submission to the cabinet and the shipping board after conferences between Chairman Lasker of the board and the president.

Under its provisions, as outlined to the United Press, the government would retain its power to take over the ships in a war emergency.

Some arrangement is being sought to prevent undue losses to the buyers during the period of trade development though of course the government is not empowered to grant a subsidy.

The keynote of the whole plan, it is said, is to make certain that the progress the government already has made in developing the merchant marine and establishing the routes shall not be lost, while at the same time losses to the treasury shall cease.

The Harding party will leave here at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow to spend Easter and part of the ensuing week at Augusta, Ga.

URGE NEFF TO OKEH ELECTROCUITION BILL

AUSTIN, March 30.—Senator J. W. Thomas of Bell county, was here to day and urged the governor to approve the bill substituting electrocution for hanging as the mode of execution in capital cases. The bill on its final passage did not receive the necessary two-thirds vote to carry the emergency clause, and should the governor approve it, the measure would not become effective until 90 days after final adjournment, or June 12.

ELASTIC LEAGUE MEET Held Here April 20-21 NATION CONTEST TONIGHT

League members will be held here on April 20-21.

The contest and rivalry is being conducted at the high school in the city to determine the champion of the state. Eight districts will participate in the meet and will send representatives from their schools to take part in the literary and sports contests.

Robert Hanchett and Jennie Mulle will represent Port Arthur High school in the girls' debating contest. They were chosen as representatives yesterday afternoon in the final girls' debate held at the high school, with Rev. W. E. Blackstock, Rev. T. Alvin Davis, Raymond Murray and William T. Donaldson as judges.

The boys' debate will be held this afternoon. Three teams will take part in the debate, which promises to be hotly contested.

Finals in the declamations will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium. The public is invited to attend and show the students how they stand "back of them" and how necessary it is for Port Arthur to win out in the district meet. No admission fee will be charged for the declamations.

Eight contestants will declaim in the boys' contest and six in the girls. Violin solos will be rendered this evening while the judges are making the decisions. Helen Johnson and Cora Walker, pupils of Prof. Koyls, will render the violin numbers. Essay writing contest will be held soon to determine the best essays. Fifteen pupils will take part in the essay writing contest.

Big Moment For Louie Guisto Arrives

LAKELAND, Fla., March 30.—The big moment has finally arrived in the baseball career of First Baseman Louie Guisto.

Guisto will start the 1923 season as the regular first baseman of the Indians. It will be his first real opportunity.

Manager Speaker has told Guisto that first base belongs to him, and that he has no opposition for the bag, and that it is up to him to prove Speaker has made no mistake in the final selection.

For six years Guisto has been the property of the Cleveland baseball club. He came to the Indians heralded as the sensation of the Coast League, certain to win a berth as a regular.

Hard luck has handicapped Guisto from the very start. Illness, injury and the war have all played a part in giving him a black eye as a big league star.

This is the big year for Guisto. It is up to him to make the most of it. The first evidence of Speaker's faith in Guisto to deliver was the giving of an unconditional release to "Stuffy" McInnis, Speaker, who has the courage of his convictions in all things, sized up the first base problem in this manner:

"McInnis is a veteran with only a few good years left. Guisto is many years younger is a wonderful fielder and should hit."

"The Cleveland club thinks so well of him that he has been carried on the pay roll for six years. The time has arrived for him to be regarded as a regular or our loss."

"I feel that he has the makings of a regular. I have given him undivided possession of the bag to increase his confidence to appreciate his estimate of his worth."

There is Speaker's line of reasoning on Guisto and it certainly seems mighty logical.

It's now up to Guisto to cash in on the big opportunity.

FOSTER ADMITS RADICAL TREND

Says the U. S. Government
Should Be Overthrown

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., March 30.—

The present government of the United States should be overthrown and a dictatorship of the proletariat established. William Z. Foster declared today in testifying in his trial on charges of violation of the Michigan syndicalist law.

O. L. Smith, prosecuting attorney, (cross examining Foster), asked:

"Do you not think that to correct conditions the present government of the United States should be overthrown and a dictatorship of the proletariat such as in Russia established?"

"Yes," Foster replied. "However, just what followed in Russia would not necessarily follow in the United States under such a dictatorship."

PIPE SALESMAN TO APPEAR BEFORE DADS

A representative of the Texarkana Pipe Works, who arrived here this morning, will probably appear before the city commission this afternoon to discuss the sale of certain material for city purposes.

The representative was in conference with Commissioner A. A. Potter this morning, and was showing at the city hall certain pieces of pipe material which he will attempt to interest the city in it is understood.

Considerable material now in use over the city of Port Arthur in sewers, mains, water lines, etc., has been bought from the Texarkana Pipe Works.

Bribe Charge in Trial Of Buncos to Result in Denver Indictments

DENVER, Colo., March 30.—Indictments against several Denver residents were rendered today as a result of the grand jury investigation into reported attempts to bribe members of the jury that found 20 defendants guilty of conspiracy to conduct a confidence game here.

Startling exposures of the connection between the ring and certain officials are promised by the investigators.

Letters Throw No Light On King Murder

NEW YORK, March 30.—Names of a number of wealthy men who were friendly with Dorothy King are understood to have come into possession of Assistant District Attorney Peoria today through letters in the "Broadway Bully" found in her safety deposit box.

Peoria has begun a careful reading of the letters, which have already been read by Police Captain Carey. The latter believes they throw no light whatever on the mystery of "who killed Dorothy King," but they do give considerable insight into the girl's list of acquaintances.

Members of the dead model's family were summoned to the district attorney's office today for further interrogation, as the entire case is being reopened due to newly discovered evidence.

Tomorrow Peoria intends to have another conference with J. Karsley Mitchell, Philadelphia mailman and one of the king's friends.

One Dies, Others Hurt As Building Collapses

NEW YORK, March 30.—One person is reported to the police to have been killed and others injured in a partial collapse of a building here today.

More lives may have been lost, it was stated at police headquarters. A most unofficial checkup showed four persons hurt in the collapse. The building was a four-story affair.

SEIZE 13 STILLS NEAR HOUSTON

Second Largest Raids Nets 85 Gallons of Booze

HOUSTON, Texas, March 30.—A raid for the arrest of half a dozen people will probably be sworn out today as a result of dry raids on the Texas coast, 35 miles south of Houston, yesterday. It was announced by J. H. Johnson, state director of field work of the prohibition enforcement department.

The raid yesterday is considered as one of the most important since Frank Cole took over the office of state director of prohibition enforcement, and is the second largest made in this section in recent months.

Thirteen stills were seized and approximately 85 gallons of whiskey and 1,000 gallons of mash were confiscated in the raid which was staged so quickly and silently the residents of the little city were hardly aware of what was taking place.

All of the liquor and mash except that saved for evidence, was destroyed.

WAR ON TEXAS OIL SWINDLERS

most profitable, swindle rings which ever operated in the United States.

The lurid, get-rich-quick schemes worked on hundreds of thousands of American "suckers" by some Texas promoters in the last two or three years has netted those promoters amazing sums.

There are, of course, some oil promoters in this section that have real assets to back their stock sales and who have paid good dividends from actual earnings, but the number of promoters operating on a fraudulent basis is astounding.

300 Companies.

In Fort Worth alone, the number of promotion concerns engaged in selling "blue sky" stock for the last three years, has averaged from 250 to 300, it is estimated. Dallas, Houston and to some extent San Antonio and Wichita Falls, have been other promotion centers, but operations of Fort Worth promoters far exceed in scope those of all other southwest cities.

It is rare that carefully planned and well directed "blue sky" oil stock selling enterprises fail and those who uncover their swindles ranging from hundreds of thousands to millions of dollars. The percentage of promotions in which stock buyers realize anything on their "investments" is infinitesimal.

The Willing Sucker.

The success of Texas oil promotion is a marked tribute to the ability of the American "sucker" to withstand financial punishment. The "sucker lists" in the hands of the promoters never wear out. Canvassed time and time again, first by one promoter and then by another, they never fail to yield a harvest of stock subscriptions. "Investors" who have tried one promoter and lost turn willing ears to promises of another that for a small additional investment they can receive. The following sequence of the promoters constitute an endless progression. Hundreds of millions of dollars have poured into offices of Fort Worth promoters, coming chiefly from New England, middle west, northwest and Pacific coast states.

P. O. Probe.

Federal postoffice inspectors have been several weeks investigating oil frauds and a federal grand jury is now conducting an inquiry. A number of indictments are expected within the next three weeks.

John S. Pratt of Toledo, Ohio, and David V. Cahill of New York City, special prosecutors representing the United States attorney general's department, are here and will have charge of the prosecution of those whom they expect to have indicted.

The visit here of John W. Crim, assistant attorney general, is believed to presage a widespread investigation of oil frauds in the southwest, involving several cities.

RADIO 'SPARKS' ARRIVE

H. F. Welch and Henry Seigle, naval radio operators, arrived in Port Arthur today to await the arrival of the U. S. navy tanker Brazos, due in this port March 31. The men were transferred from the naval radio station in New Orleans to duty aboard the tanker.

COUNCIL NOT TO HOLD REGULAR MEET TODAY

Announcement that the city commission would not meet this afternoon was made shortly after 2:30 o'clock today.

All matters which were to have been brought before the council will probably be held in abeyance until Monday afternoon, unless Mayor Pink Logan calls a special session of the official body for tomorrow.

DESPOUDENT, SUICIDES

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., March 30.—In a fit of despondency, Mrs. Mary Franklin, 62, committed suicide at her home at Deering, near here during the night. The woman poured coal oil over her clothing and applied a match. Her husband sued for divorce three days ago.

Mrs. Evans Reported to Be Recovering Slowly

Mrs. G. W. Evans, 839 1/2 North street, who was severely injured when she tripped and fell down the stone steps at the post office about noon Thursday, is reported today to be slowly recovering from the effects of her injury. It has developed that the elbow cap on her left arm was knocked out of place, friends said, but it is not believed her injuries will prove serious.

Throughout Thursday afternoon and up until late last night, Mrs. Evans was in a semiconscious condition as a result of the wound to her head when she struck the pavement, it is said. Mrs. Evans is the wife of Officer G. W. Evans, of the Port Arthur police department.

ORDINANCE WILL NAME SALARIES

Wistner Drawing Up Measure for Early Reading

Following a conference of city officials yesterday afternoon, it was learned at the city hall that the ordinance fixing the salaries of the incoming city officials for the year 1934 is being drawn up by City Attorney J. W. Wistner, and will probably be presented to the city commission at an early time.

The conference occurred in the council room yesterday afternoon, when Mayor Pink Logan called Attorney Wistner and the commissioners to his desk and discussed the salaries to be included in the ordinance which is being drawn.

The ordinance, it is understood, will be presented as soon as the matter of salaries is adjusted.

HOLD SUSPECT

HAMLIN, Texas, March 30.—One suspect was held today following an assassination near here late Wednesday of J. C. Randall, prominent West Texas attorney. Two men were arrested, but one of them was released immediately.

Citizens have subscribed $1,000 to be used in the capture and prosecution of the assassin, who is believed to be a liquor violator who shot the attorney by mistake, thinking he was another man who recently has been active in ferreting out moonshiners and bootleggers.

ALEX BONE DIES

According to information reaching here today, Alexander Bone, veteran employee of the postoffice at Beaumont, died at his daughter's home in Dallas, Texas, this morning.

Mr. Bone was well known in this vicinity and had been assistant postmaster at Beaumont for 20 years before his resignation a little over a year ago.

Paggi Administrators Awarded $90,331 in the Ennis Foreclosure

BEAUMONT, Texas, March 30.—Mrs. Bertha Paggi and Charles Paggi, administrators of the estate of Ed Paggi, were awarded a judgment in the 60th district court here today for $90,331 against the Producers Cotton Product association of Ennis, Texas, together with foreclosures on the company.

SUITS FILED

BEAUMONT, Texas, March 30.—The following suits were filed in the 60th district court here today:

H. W. Snyder and Mrs. G. V. Remington vs. John W. Wistner, appointment of receiver.

SNOW PLOWS IN MERCY ERRAND

Michigan Community is Cut Off, Food Low, By Storm

ESCANABA, Mich., March 30.—Snow plows plowed through 10 and 15 foot drifts today in an effort to give relief and communication to towns and villages in the upper eastern Michigan peninsula where inhabitants are reported suffering from lack of fuel and food.

Communities in the entire eastern part of the peninsula have been isolated for three days by a blizzard which left railroads and highways blocked, according to word here.

The snow plow operators expect to get through today.

Symphony Orchestra To Rehearse Tonight For Sunday's Concert

Special rehearsal of the Port Arthur Symphony Orchestra tonight at 7:30 in Franklin school auditorium to prepare for the free concert the organization will give Sunday afternoon in the auditorium at 4 o'clock is called by Frank W. Keens, conductor.

Mrs. R. L. Drake, Mrs. Hortense Smith and Mrs. E. H. McGuire, all of whom will sing arias from Handel's "Messiah" with the orchestra at the Sunday afternoon concert, will be present tonight to rehearse with the orchestra, Keens said.

The entire Sunday evening service of the First Presbyterian church, starting at 7:30 p. m., will be given over to a program of special Easter music, to be rendered by the church choir and orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Grammer. Special Easter music also will be featured in the program for Sunday morning services in the First Presbyterian church, Mrs. Grammer said.

Mitchell On Trial For Sixth Fiendish Murder

WACO, Texas, March 30.—Roy Mitchell, indicted, convicted already of four of Waco's recent fiendish murders, was to go on trial here today for the last of five slayings he is alleged to have confessed.

The last case accused him of the murder of Harrell Holton, who was killed and his girl companion attacked by a negro on a lonely road near here last May.

NEFF TO DALLAS

AUSTIN, Texas, March 30.—Governor Neff will leave tonight for Dallas to remain until Saturday night. At noon tomorrow he will attend the Dallas Bar Association's luncheon and tomorrow night will be in attendance upon the Texas Postal conference.

RANDLE TO ASK INQUIRY COURT

Family Skeletons May Rattle in Army Row

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 30.—Captain Edwin H. Randle, co-complainant with his wife, Agnes Randle, in a suit for $100,000 for alleged defamation of her character against his commanding officer, Colonel A. L. Conger, has carried his battle for a court of inquiry directed to Major General Edward M. Lewis.

It became known today that Captain Randle's efforts to have headquarters of the Second Division handle the matter failed yesterday.

General Lewis declared that while Captain Randle's application for a board of inquiry was perfectly justifiable under military regulations, yet he was in the peculiar position of having to decide where the findings of such a board would effect the unjustified trial of the civil suit filed by the Randles.

Other Cases to Be Aired.

If such a board is appointed and a probe into the charges made by Colonel Conger is carried out in their closets, is the promise of high officers of eighth corps headquarters area. Not only will the Conger-Randle case be thoroughly gone into but a number of similar instances which have occurred since the rapid growth of the army at the beginning of the World War, will also be revealed.

Immunable instances of where officers have resigned from the chosen life career rather than face the glare of publicity are on record, officers declared.

Resignations Forced, Claim

Many of these resignations were brought about by the automatic ruling of a superior officer and in many instances later were found to have been unfounded. The Conger-Randle $100,000 defamation of character suit, was brought about by Colonel Conger ordering Captain Randle to either resign from the service or divorce his wife, alleging that she was unfit for other officers and their wives to associate with. He is charged with having based his complaints as to the conduct of Mrs. Randle on two parties which were given at the Randle's quarters, the first on New Year's eve and the second on February 10. He alleged that profane and boisterous language was used by both men and women and that there was conduct unbecoming an officer and his wife on both occasions.

Police Identification Files Being Brought Up to Date by Thorpe

Work of re-adjusting the city police identification records is being carried on by Identification Superintendent Thorpe at police headquarters with considerable rapidity.

For the past two weeks, Superintendent Thorpe has spent much time in his office in the city hall building, arranging his records, and going over the files so that they will be in "tip-top" shape for the police department.

The files maintained by the superintendent include an accurate morgue of both local and other characters called to the attention of the officers.

Dock Case to Be Heard Here Early in April

Preparations for the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing to be held here in April on the case of the Port Arthur Chamber of Commerce and Shipping against the Texas and Fort Worth railroad, known as the K. C. S. dock case, are under way and are keeping Traffic Manager Frank E. Fouts busy.

This morning, Mr. Fouts was outlining certain maps which are to be used at the hearing, while he has spent several days in compiling data which will probably be introduced as evidence for the Chamber of Commerce and Shipping.

The hearing will probably be held at the Plaza hotel.

BANDIT SLAIN

Police Ambush Him After He Holds Up Grocery

FAIRVIEW, N. J., March 30.—A bandit was killed in a pistol battle with police who lay in wait for him at the National grocery store here today.

The manager had reported to police that a suspicious character was hanging around his place.

When the bandit entered and commanded the manager to open the safe, the police sprang out and a fight followed in which the bandit was killed. The man was later identified as William Brandt, escaped convict.

JURY TRYING NEGRO IN WET CASE STILL OUT

Special to The News.

BEAUMONT, Texas, March 30.—Albert Gullett, Port Arthur negro, who went to trial in the 58th district court here yesterday, is awaiting the verdict on charges of selling liquor. The case went to the jury this morning.

Charles Freeman and Bo Baxter, charged jointly with Gullett, were dismissed for insufficient evidence.

PERJURY?

Defense Make Charge in Gary Booze Trials

INDIANAPOLIS, March 30.—Charges that government witnesses perjured themselves in the trial of the Gary booze conspiracy trials, were made in the federal court today as the attorneys for the sixty-two defendants closed their final arguments.

"There was a great amount of perjury by government witnesses in this case," said Attorney Charles McCabe in his talk in behalf of Clyde Hunter, former prosecuting attorney of Lake county, who is one of the defendants.

MELON CROP DELAYED A MONTH BY FREEZE

The dark prospect of Port Arthur being without Sabine grown watermelons and cantaloupes before July was sounded here today by Louis Welch, of Sabine.

Recent freezes killed off all of the vines and re-planting has been delayed by heavy rains, Welch said. He estimated the Sabine watermelon and cantaloupe crops are set back at least 30 days by the havoc of the elements.

FIGHTERS CAUSE JAM IN TRAFFIC

Interurban, Street Cars and Autos Tied Up

When two Port Arthurians picked the 900 block on Procter as an arena for settling their personal difficulties at noon today, a traffic jam that delayed the incoming interurban for several minutes and attracted a crowd of several hundred spectators resulted.

Deputy Sheriff John Foote was driving out to lunch when he got tied up behind the office of automobiles jamming Procter while the occupants watched the battle. He went to investigate the "accident" and finding a fight raging, placed the batters under arrest.

Complaints of affray were filed against each in the court of Justice of the Peace W. F. James, and the defendants released on bond, the deputy sheriff said.

YOU AND I

LEAVE
 "What would you prefer—death or life?" "Death," is the usual answer. But no one can be certain what his decision would be, until he is faced with the real thing. In Canton, Ohio, a judge gave a standard, confirmed murderer, his choice between the electric chair or life in prison. He chose death. His lawyers persuaded him to change his mind, and he goes to the penitentiary, with the chance of getting out before death.

RADIO
 Patents on 200 radio devices, invented by John Hays Hammond, Jr., are sold to the Radio Corporation and the big telephone company. One of them is said to be a device that eliminates static interference and the "bubbling in" of Morse code on wireless telegraphic circuits. This latter will disappear.

OUT
 Radio concerts, broadcast free, are cutting down the sale of sheet music and phonograph records. This reduces the revenue formerly enjoyed by music composers. So they organize, threaten to sue broadcasting stations that use their copyrighted music without paying for it.

BROADCASTERS
 In one year the number of radio broadcasting stations increases from 80 to 581. There shouldn't be over 50, and possibly as few as 10, according to some of the experts testifying at the Hoover radio conference.

BOOZE
 Wayne Wheeler calls his Anti-Saloon League forces for a new attack on J. Barleycorn. He's after Uncle Sam to enforce Section 6 of the Volstead Act, which makes it unlawful to buy booze except on doctor's prescription or government permit.

VAMPS

WHY TAXPAYERS GROWL

Tax Commissioner John G. Willacy started something early in the year when he gave to the press of the state a list of counties that received from the state treasury more than they paid in. This led to the drafting of a bill which provided for a state board of equalization. It should have been a popular measure and those who counted noses say that if it had ever reached the senate it would have been passed by that body. It was defeated by the house membership but a change of five votes would have sent it across the hall to the upper house. Now the taxpayers of the counties that pay in annually more than they take out are on the war path. They demand justice, the demand equalization, they demand something approaching equal rendition of property. They are on the war path in Jefferson county, they are on the war path in Coleman, they should be on the war path in all counties where the rule is a fair assessment and not a low assessment of values. There is a state tax rate of seventy-five cents. If a low assessment is made by the county are on the war path in Bexar county, in Dallas, in Harris, in El Paso, in Wichita, in fact in all the high valuation counties.

These facts and figures are taken from the Willacy story of valuation: Smith county pays in $94,000 and draws out $215,746. Smith county turns in its land at $7.83 an acre. Gregg county, a neighbor of Smith, has to fix its valuation at $12.40 per acre. Hopkins county pays in $10,000 and draws out $173,000. Hopkins county is the home of Representative John Nelson, author and introducer in the 38th legislature of tax bills galore. He is for a tax on everything under the sun except the property of Hopkins county farmers.

Bexar county pays $1,050,000 into the state treasury and takes out $600,000. Dallas, Tarrant, McLennan and Wichita pay in large sums annually, and all the taxpayers in these counties say that if all the land in the state were assessed on an equal basis the tax burden would be light as well as even. It is admitted by Commissioner Willacy that 85 per cent of the East Texas counties draw out more than they pay in, while most of the West Texas counties pay in more than they draw out.

There are critics of the present system who insist that some of the smaller counties in North Texas pay more taxes than the large counties. Rockwall has $32.32 per acre. Hunt, which is the home of Representative C. E. Dinkie of state income tax fame, turns in its rich black land at $20 an acre. Red River county produces long staple cotton and its land is said to be very valuable. Red River land is rendered at $11.98 an acre. Everywhere throughout the state the claim is made that values are fixed merely to secure funds enough to support local communities; there is very little for the state treasury. They need needs and let the state go hang.

Representative Lee Sattowhite is redrafting the bill which met defeat at the regular session. Governor Neff is for honest rendition and fair assessment in each of the 252 counties. There are a number of representatives who voted against the state board of equalization bill in the regular session and the number who dodged, or who were not in their seat, who may face the music at the special session and do something substantial for their state. Now just why should the law permit $40 an acre land be rendered at $7 an acre, or $25 an acre land to be rendered at $3 an acre?

Texas has a penitentiary system. This system owes $350,000 and is going in the hole $35,000 every month. This is not all it owes. Its directors borrowed almost a million dollars from a Kansas City concern and this will have to be paid some day. Those who read the daily papers know that the 38th legislature, in regular session, made a $600,000 appropriation for the relief of the penitentiary system to become available without delay. More than $350,000 of the $600,000 appropriation has been spent and the system is out of funds. Guards must be paid. Supplies must be purchased. It takes money, lots of it, to run the penitentiary system of Texas. This is spring time, this is planting time and prison farmers hope to produce bumper crops this year and then when selling time comes to get fancy prices for their products. If they are hoping against hope, then there will be another large deficit next fall. All concerned admit that the Texas penitentiary system is a white elephant and hard to handle. There is only $8,000,000 in the state treasury and $6,000,000 belongs to the available school fund, subject to transfer on April 2. This is the reason why the $600,000 appropriation for the penitentiary system can not be paid ahead of the $3,000,000 for the public school system. Texas lawmakers find no trouble in drafting and putting over appropriation bills. They balk when it comes to putting over tax measures. Those who dance must pay the fiddler and now new sources of revenue must be tapped or the state treasury will be as lean as the country church mouse.

NO TWO AGREED

James Martin Miller, a magazine writer, recently interviewed the secretary of the treasury and was told by the Honorable Andrew Mellon that no two experts on finance or money agreed. He was told something else—that the United States mint bureau estimates that the output of gold since the discovery of America has not been more than $18,000,000,000 in value and the money stocks in all the countries of the world have never amounted to more than $8,500,000,000 in value of the precious metal.

It may interest the reader to be told that the United States now possesses nearly one-half of this visible supply of this gold money stock. It may interest the reader to be told that the war debt of the world is $350,000,000,000 and all the war bonds of the world are payable in gold coin.

Now is gold an asset or a liability? This was the question asked Andrew W. Mellon when he made reply that no "two experts on finance or money agreed."

RAIL PROSPERITY

This is another prosperity straw: The Erie railroad has ordered 5,000 cars for freight service. It is apparent that the American railways are not on the verge of bankruptcy, and the interstate commerce commission has called for financial reports. Railways are permitted to retain six per cent of their net earnings and if there is a surplus it goes to the government. This makes it interesting for all concerned. Not a single common carrier has made a report or admitted that there is a surplus in its treasury.

There is money in steel. The United States Steel corporation in its annual report for 1922 shows gross business of $1,000,000,000, a gain of $105,000,000 over 1921, and net profit of $39,553,455. There is more in steel; there is money in petroleum; there is money in lumber; there is money in cotton; there is money in wool. America, speaking from a prosperity point, made a long jump forward in 1922.

Texas has a population of 5,000,000. Texas has more than 100,000 notaries public. This was the record established by the 38th in sending in names to the senate for confirmation, and the governor is presumed to sign the commissions of all the notaries. This is a dry week, in a dry office, in a dry city, in a dry state.

Texas Boy Scouts have tapped a new source of revenue. The Magnolia Company yielded $1,000. There is a special session coming. What will the legislature do?

LETTERS FROM JOHN ALLEN
 FRANKMONT, PLANCE OF LES-
 LIE HAMILTON, TO SYDNEY
 CARTON, HIS BACHELOR
 FRIEND

DEAR SYD:
 Although I did not get those letters I am very glad I came over and had this little talk with Paula. I have a very different feeling about her now than I did after getting her letter the other day. You see I jumped to the conclusion that she had it in for me; I know now that you are right. She is a pretty decent girl after all. Of course she let me understand that she cared for me and would always care, but she did it very delicately and, to tell the truth, I felt rather like the cat you mentioned I was in your letter.

The moment I arrived, I called up Paula. She recognized my voice at once and she gave a little exclamation of delight. "Oh, it is more cher Jacques. That you were swanking in the carriages of your sweetheart I have been thinking, and a queer little sinking feeling it gave me. "Why are you here? Is your wonderful love dream over?"

"No, Paula," I answered, "but when Syd wrote me of dining and motoring with you, the sudden impulse came over me of seeing you just once more. I guess I became a bit homesick for the sight of you." "Jacques," she spoke most solemnly, "do you really mean to tell me that you came back purposely to see me?"

"That is exactly what I did," I confessed. "You dear!" "Well, will you dine with me this evening? I can only stay 24 hours, you know." "Happier than I ever conceived I could be again will be to sit opposite you at a softly light table," she answered in that queer little French idiom that she crafts on her French words.

To pass the time I took the roadster and started out for a long ride. Strange, isn't it, Syd, the perversity of the mind of man. When I got into that roadster my thoughts were all of Paula, but I had hardly thrown the engine in gear when Les-bie took possession of my brain—she always has possession of my heart—I was not conscious of anyone in all the world but my own sweetheart. You have seen her, Syd. Do you blame me?

I certainly do not blame you or any other man for thinking that a wonderful girl like Leslie has brought her wares to a poor market when she brought her love to me, I could have loved Leslie for pages, but I must tell you about my dinner with Paula. "Poor little girl! I do not think, Syd, that we men really understand just what we do when we go a long time with a girl—give her a lot of attention simply because we are in saying her company—then, finding another girl that fascinates us for the moment, we simply let ourselves to pastures new. Paula told me that when I first stopped going to see her she almost went mad with loneliness.

She said, "Do you not know, men, cher, that a girl cannot so quickly let her heart adjust?" Then in a voice that was full of suppressed tears she continued: "Jacques, to be happy I want you. More than all the world else I want you to be happy and if after you are married you find out that you have made a mistake, desolate will be your Paula."

After that I could not say to her I did not trust her, could I? Especially after she said, "When my heart is so lonely that I think it will break I shall take out your letters and read them over and over. They are of course sorrow's crown of sorrows in that they make me remember happier things, but nevertheless I get a kind of pleasure out of it."

That settled the letter business. After this most of our conversation began, "Do you remember—" Syd, I did have some great times with that girl. I liked her a lot. She is very different from Leslie. You cannot compare the two girls, but I have been a very lucky man to have had two women like Leslie and Paula love me. JACK.

The Old Home Town

Mr. Nimble never has been able to understand why anger increases Mrs. Nimble's height, but he is sure that she is much taller when she is mad at him. The Nimbles get along well except on those occasions when they go somewhere together on a holiday. On a recent occasion he met an old friend a few minutes after reaching the park when a great number of people had assembled, and while talking over the old days with his friend the time passed more rapidly than Mr. Nimble thought. At length he started out to look for his family and when he found them he saw that his wife was much taller than usual.

"Well, it is kind of you to come back to us," she said to him, growing taller and taller as she spoke, "but I don't want to keep you from having a good time. Go right back to your friend and enjoy yourself, and when I am ready to leave I'll ask some stranger to help me get the children home."

Years ago when Mr. McSpot asked for his wife's hand her father told him that she didn't care for money and that she was a girl who was easily imposed upon. And now Mr. McSpot thinks that her father must have been away from home so much that he didn't have a chance to become well acquainted with his daughter.

I see no fault variety in life. Occasionally he makes a note at the bank to raise money with which to pay all his accounts, and then he makes new accounts and lets them run so he can save up enough money to meet his note.

Jaggerville's only profound thinker, who has read the remarkable work, "Everything is-proved," has little to say to anybody. He just profoundly thinks that the age isn't worthy of him.

It will be remembered that Fletcher, retired from the game for a year, at that time, he believed his retirement was permanent. The year's lay-off caused Fletcher to lose some of his brightness and despite every effort to regain it he cannot come back to old-time form.

Fletcher feels sure that Sands will fill the bill despite the fact that he hits only 267 in the Coast League last year. There seems to be no doubt but that his fielding will measure up to big league standards.

Fletcher is of the opinion that he will hit as well in the majors as he did in the minors. If so, he will prove a very valuable addition to the Philadelphia club.

Should Sands fail to come through Fletcher is well fortified in Wrightson. The brounser batted 305 and filled in most respectably at three of the infield positions. In 35 games at short he led the National League in that position with a fielding average of 960.

Fletcher is confident Sands and Wrightson will keep him from having to break into the game. He will appear in uniform, however, and do the coaching at third.

Fellowship of Prayer

Daily Lesson Bible reading and meditation prepared for Commission on Evangelism of Federal Council of Churches.

FRIDAY
 The Price He Paid
 "And it was the third hour, and they crucified him." Mark 15:25.
 Read Mark 15:21-41.
 "We are all bound up together in one great tragedy of transgression." MEDITATION: The supreme tragedy of life is not only that Jesus was crucified on Golgotha centuries ago, but that he is crucified daily.

HYMN:
 Beneath the cross of Jesus
 I faint would take my stand—
 The shadow of a mighty rock
 Within a weary land.
 A home within the wilderness,
 A rest upon the way.
 From the burning of the noontide heat,
 And the burden of the day.

PRAYER: O God, who art Love, grant to thy children to bear one another's burden in perfect good will, that thy peace which passeth understanding may keep our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY
 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but he thatarkeneth unto counsel is wise.—Prov. 12:15.
 The fact that wise counsel is unobtainable in having learning, for he has thereby only more ways of exposing himself; and he that has sense knows that learning is not knowledge, but rather the art of using it.—Steele.

A True Friend

BY BERTON BRADLEY
 He lets me buy him dinner.
 And never buys for me.
 My purse grows flatter, thinner.
 My money he annexes.
 When in his company.
 By various hooks and crooks.
 But, though my soul he vexes,
 He never borrows books!

His humor makes me weary.
 His talk is most insane.
 His tales are old and dreary.
 And trying to view him,
 I do not like his looks.
 But still I cotton to him—
 He never borrows books!

What though he's far from moral.
 With faults I can't defend.
 I shall not ever quarrel
 With such a precious friend.
 And should he from a cell come,
 A criminal, gadzooks,
 I still should bid him welcome—
 He never borrows books!

Heavy Damage Done In London Air Raids; Urge Bombproof Roofs

LONDON, March 30.—There isn't going to be any more war, according to Pollyanna and a few others. Despite this expert opinion, responsible military men are urging architects to equip new buildings with bombproof roofs.

Damage to London from air raids, has just been officially announced. It is believed that had Londoners known the full extent and accuracy of German bombing during that previous panic, resignation that prevented panics would have broken and chaotic scenes occurred in the British capital.

The British Fire Prevention committee has just issued a handbook of air raid devastations. The top floor of the General post-office was wholly wrecked. An entire gallery of the Royal Academy was demolished. One wing of imposing Savoy Mansions was cleared from attic to cellar. Somerset House, full of important documents, was seriously damaged. The record is not yet complete.

BRITISH SOLDIER TORMY PETREL

His Record for Wounds and Decorations

LONDON, March 30.—The "tormy petrel" of the British army, General Adrian Carton De Wiart, has turned up again—of course, in the latest war, or the near-approach to a war, Europe can call it at the moment.

Then news dispatches reported that General Carton De Wiart had been arrested by Lithuanian troops in thick winter snow-land between Poland and Lithuania, which the League of Nations has declared a "neutral zone." Military circles said "Good Lord, isn't that man had enough war?"

But Carton De Wiart never seems to have had enough war. Wherever there is trouble this brilliant Belgian British soldier is on the spot. He is present head of the British Military Missions to Warsaw, and was in this capacity that he saw the "Mental Front" and suffered capture for a few days before the Russian "irregulars" realized that was not a safe man to hold.

Still only 39 years of age, Carton De Wiart has received more wounds than any living British—or probably any other—soldier. He holds the Victoria Cross, Distinguished Service Order, Military Cross, Legion of Honor, practically every other Allied distinction worth having, and is continually adding to the blue ribbon on his breast by looking fresh wars.

General Carton De Wiart is a Belgian fighting and political ally, and the general's brother is the Belgian premier and Minister of Justice, and most of them fought in Belgian army during the great war. But Adrian, while still practically a boy, enlisted in the British army for the South African war, and since a British citizen. He was in the South African war, the great European upheaval found him in a minor war in Somalia. But little things like that did not deter Carton De Wiart. He soon had a job at the War Office, and in the middle of 1915 he had worried way out to the front line trenches in France. In all he was wounded five times including the loss of an arm and the near-loss of a leg. He was in the V.C. and every other distinction.

On the signing of the armistice, General Carton De Wiart got himself sent to London, and was on hand during all the next few years' turmoil in the white states and during the various Bolshevik offensives etc. He managed to collect a couple more wounds.

Veteran of 80 Refused To Pay Out Alimony

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 30.—"Uncle" Dow Davis, 80, member of General Lee's staff and four times married, has taken the spotlight after many years of tranquility on his farm near here.

"Uncle" Dow faced jail for refusing to pay alimony to his fourth wife, Mrs. Davis left her husband recently alleging "barbarous" treatment. This Davis sternly denied. Davis was ordered to pay temporary alimony pending outcome of the divorce suit now before the courts. He refused saying he would go to jail first. He was not sent to jail but his former farm and homeplace was sold by the court and the money used for alimony.

GENERAL PERSHING TO LEAD VETS' PARADE

CAPE MAY, N. J., March 30.—Plans for the annual convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to be held here June 16, 17 and 18, have been completed by officers of the organization.

The Veterans will be welcomed by the City Commission and members of the Progressive League.

Word has been received that General Pershing, Secretary of the Navy, Senator Edge, and Governor Sizor of New Jersey, will attend. Colonel Huston, National Commander of the Veterans, will also be present. General Pershing will lead the parade.

Thaviu and His Band Will Give Two Programs at Chautauqua

Thaviu's Band is coming to Port Arthur's chautauqua—twenty-five selected musicians from the great musical organization W.C.A. both open-air and closed the San Francisco Exposition—and led by the magnetic Thaviu himself. Of the sixteen bands of national-wide reputation which entertained the great crowds during the exposition season, Thaviu's was the only one requested for a return engagement. They had so successfully pleased the throngs during the opening days that the directors commissioned their return for the closing weeks. The secret of Thaviu's popularity is not expressed so much in the size of his organization as in the unusual personnel and the fact that Thaviu is a master director of his accomplished musicians. All band music critics comment upon the sparkling, life and dashing brilliancy of his musical interpretations. Not only is Mr. Thaviu a conductor of renown, but he is also a wonderful cornetist and tanks with the best in the country. Unprecedented attendance is anticipated at each and every one of Mr. Thaviu's concerts in the West this season, and certainly it is a musical treat no lover of inspiring music can afford to forego. Two full concerts will be given at Chautauqua the closing day, and in the evening the band will be assisted by three grand opera artists. Unusual voices are required when supported by so large an instrumental company, and the soloists secured more than fulfill the requirements. They will appear on the closing day.

LIFE CONVICT IS ARTIST GENIUS

'Old Dutch' Convicted for Wife Murder

McALLISTER, Okla., March 30.—Monotony of gray prison walls failed to smother the genius of a life turner at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary here.

"Old Dutch," as the prisoner is known, convicted 25 years ago for murdering his wife, disclosed talent for painting and used his skill to beautify the prison dining room and lobbies.

Through kindness to the prisoner, Warden M. C. Townsend has withheld the artist's real name. Few about the prison know his name. He is "Old Dutch," the prison artist, to everyone there.

For many years after he was received at the penitentiary his talent remained buried beneath his rough exterior until one day he was detailed to paint some scenery for the stage. The scenery painted by "Old Dutch" was so artistic that he was allowed to paint a portrait of each Oklahoma governor.

"Old Dutch's" latest canvas, a painting of Governor Jack Walton, has just been completed, but it will not be allowed to hang in the "Hall of Governors." The painter said the work did not do justice to Oklahoma's executive and announced another portrait would be painted.

Art critics who have chanced to visit the prison have invariably complimented the painter on his interpretation of the "Crucifixion" and "Resurrection" each 9 by 12 feet.

"Old Dutch" came to the United States soon after he was dismissed from the year of compulsory service in the German army, he said. He married the woman for whose murder he was convicted, at Clinton, N. Y. They later moved to Oklahoma. His wife was found dead in their home which had been set afire "Old Dutch" claims that another committed the crime.

HAIR ON THE GERMAN

BERLIN, March 30.—Hairiness is an important indication of pure Germanic blood. If one wants to become a member of the Germanic League, the applicant has to forward to the management a test of his hair and a foot print—apparently to show whether there is any tendency to flat feet, or if he is married or engaged, a picture of the lady. Further, he has to declare under his oath whether he is hairy on his chest.

Some credit for Friedman

BERLIN, March 29.—Dr. Friedman, he of "turtle-herm" fame, has been partially vindicated by a special expert committee of the Prussian Landtag. This committee, founded as a result of a Landtag decision of three years ago, have reached the conclusion that while Friedman's so-called tuberculosis cure is not a full cure, it nevertheless has meritorious qualities in the treatment of tuberculosis.

Transportation Biggest Problem in Business

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—"Transportation in all its phases in the United States" and "Europe and Europe's affairs" will be the two major topics considered at the 11th annual meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce in New York, May 7 to 10, according to N. B. Kelly, general secretary of the chamber.

Because of the interest of business men through the country in the two general subjects it is expected that the convention will be one of the largest ever held by the chamber. Kelly said: "Representative business organizations in every state in the Union have been asked to send delegates and the attendance of from 4,000 to 5,000 business men is looked for."

"Transportation will be in the keynote of the meeting. Already the National Chamber is engaged on a comprehensive study of the whole problem from every point of view, hoping to aid in the ultimate formulation of a national transportation problem," Kelly said.

Representatives of railroads, shipping interests, producers, the motor industry, waterway operators and the public are included in the conference make up and also will be heard at the meeting.

Chinese Travel in American Trains

PEKING, March 30.—The traveling public that journeys between Peking and Shanghai will get used to it after a while, but just now it is too much de luxe to be treated lightly. Travel now is by all steel American built trains. The cars are finished in mahogany and there are cut flowers and cut glass on the dining car tables. These same green carpets cover the floors and about the train there is the smell of American varnish and not of Oriental lacquer. Six of these trains were built in America and assembled in China.

German Stole Thousands Sent From U. S.

BERLIN, March 30.—The "dollar thief" who has been robbing the Munich post office of thousands of United States dollars sent by relatives in America to poor Germans in Bavaria, has been identified as a "high postal official."

He is Chief Postal Inspector Pfaffinger of the Munich post office. Practically every unregistered letter with money from the United States failed to reach its Munich destination. Thousands of dollars were stolen.

Pfaffinger fixed things so he alone could steal the money. He had two subordinates who tried to play the same game arrested and imprisoned. The Berlin inspecting authorities, however, discovered thirty-seven letters in Pfaffinger's desk, all containing United States money and all

THE "KING'S POOR" NOW HAVE THEIR FEET CAREFULLY WASHED IN ADVANCE

LONDON, March 30.—Today, Maundy Thursday, witnessed a picturesque medieval ceremony at Westminster Hall, when the King's "Maundy Money" was distributed to twelve old men and twelve women, selected from the poor living in the shadow of Buckingham Palace.

The ceremony, which is a substitute for the biblical custom of washing the feet of beggars in Holy Week is no longer performed by the sovereign in person (James II. was the last British monarch to donate alms personally), but is marked by considerable state and antique pageantry, although not made a public show.

The selected 24-poor old men and women, with hands and faces nicely washed and their best clothes carefully brushed, were marshalled by the king's Sub-Almoner, the Rev. Prebendary J. J. Percival, at the Royal Almoner Westminster, and with the assistance of a squad of the picturesque yeomen of the guard, a semi-gorgeous, semi-pompous "parade" was formed up for the high officiating dignitaries who were the Hereditary Grand Almoner (the Marquis of Exeter), the High Almoner (Dean of Wells), the King's Treasurer, and Keeper of the Privy Purse (Colonel Sir Frederick Ponsonby), and the Deputy-Keeper of the Privy Purse (Sir John H. Chapple).

After a short religious service the "maundy," or small baskets containing the doles were carried round and each of the beneficiaries received the small coins specially struck for the purpose. According to the royal custom, the alms represented one penny for each year of the sovereign's life (fifty-nine times in the case of King George this year), but owing to the trivial value of the money nowadays, the money is not given in current coinage. Instead special "Maundy Money" is struck, being small bronze and silver coins to the value of one, two, three, four and six pence, and these can readily be sold to collectors for many times their face value.

Incidentally it is the only private coinage King George is permitted to order from the Royal Mint, and it is no "strictly legal tender." Many of the recipients prefer to treasure up the little coins, but there is a steady market for them if actual cash is needed.

BERLIN, March 30.—The "dollar thief" who has been robbing the Munich post office of thousands of United States dollars sent by relatives in America to poor Germans in Bavaria, has been identified as a "high postal official."

He is Chief Postal Inspector Pfaffinger of the Munich post office. Practically every unregistered letter with money from the United States failed to reach its Munich destination. Thousands of dollars were stolen.

Pfaffinger fixed things so he alone could steal the money. He had two subordinates who tried to play the same game arrested and imprisoned. The Berlin inspecting authorities, however, discovered thirty-seven letters in Pfaffinger's desk, all containing United States money and all

PEKING, March 30.—The traveling public that journeys between Peking and Shanghai will get used to it after a while, but just now it is too much de luxe to be treated lightly. Travel now is by all steel American built trains. The cars are finished in mahogany and there are cut flowers and cut glass on the dining car tables. These same green carpets cover the floors and about the train there is the smell of American varnish and not of Oriental lacquer. Six of these trains were built in America and assembled in China.

Diamond Puzzle Contest Closes Today, Fans—Get Your Answers in Early

The last of the Billy Evans Diamond Puzzles will be published on this page. The contest—all but naming the winners with the printing of today's puzzle.

Answers in not later than April 3. If they reach the Editor's desk later than that time, they will not be considered in the outcome of the contest.

On April 7—one week from tomorrow—the correct answers to all the Puzzles which have been appearing on the News Sport Page for the past 12 days, will be printed; at the same time the winners of the contest will be announced, and awarded with the first and second prizes.

Much interest has been manifested in the contest. If you haven't been in it, you have missed a lot of fun—and you have also missed a big chance to win a prize worth having.

The person guessing the most of the Puzzles correctly will be awarded with TWO season passes to all the Beaumont Exporter games; the person guessing the next highest number correctly will be awarded TWO season passes to all the Port Arthur City League games.

The Exporter season in Beaumont opens early in April; it will be mighty nice to have a couple of SEASON passes to all those games, and see the cream of the Texas League in action. The City League season starts April 16. You will enjoy those games, too, if you have a season pass.

Send your answers in, addressed to the Sport Editor, The News, just as soon as the contest closes.

City League Schedule Opens April 16, With Sixty Games Planned

Teams in Port Arthur Organization Limited to 18 Players; General Rules Adopted After Some Parley By Club Representatives.

BY BILL ARCHER

FOLLOWING the meeting held last night, it was announced the schedule of the City Baseball League would open April 16.

The schedule, as introduced by Chairman G. H. Green, of the committee appointed by President George Weddell to draw up a schedule, calls for a total of 60 games, starting the games on April 16 and ending August 10.

The plan, as introduced at the opening of the meeting, was adopted by the League, and the schedule ordered published at once.

Discussions relative to the rules which will govern City League baseball here this season occupied the majority of the 45-minute conference last night, the members present agreeing to a number of the rules suggested by President Weddell and making certain changes in others the president presented.

It was agreed during the meeting that each of the four teams in the league are to be limited to 18 players. None of the players from either of the four teams can transfer to some other of the City League teams without giving the officials of the organization five days notice.

A rule declaring that all players are to be confined to the industry whose team is in the League with the exception of the City team, and that the players of the city team must be residents of Port Arthur, unless otherwise specified by the executive committee of the organization, was included in the general rules after considerable discussion as to the eligibility of players.

The meeting ended with the passage of the general rules, which were adopted upon motion of A. E. Aden, with a second in W. Y. Craig. Some discussion as to the development of teams for the league occupied time "along the side," and it was intimated by several that the player limit industries here have as many as 40 players out working for positions now.

No date was set for another meeting, and it was understood last night that the schedule will open April 16 without further notice from the league officials.

John Kilbane Renews His Training Efforts

LORAIN, Ohio, March 30.—Johnny Kilbane, world champion featherweight, has resumed training for his fight in New York on June 2 with Eugene Criqui, the European champion.

Kilbane, with three sparring partners, are camped at the champion's summer home on Lake Erie, five miles west of here.

He has been doing light training for several months, but is just getting down to real work now. He does eight miles of road work each morning and spends the afternoons in the gymnasium. He has not started boxing yet, but plans to start next week with the gloves.

The champion will do most of his training here, and will not go to New York until the last week of May. Asked about a refusal of the New York boxing commission to permit the bout, he said he felt sure that the promoters would be able to get the permit.

ROOKIES DISCHARGED

SEATTLE, March 30.—Long, Rafferty and Woodworth, White Sox rookies, were sent back to the clubs from whence they came, by Manager Gleason today.

ROBINS OFFER 'DIF'

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—Players of the Brooklyn Robins are ready to "dip in" and pay the $750 salary difference that is preventing Zach Wheat from signing with the club. Wheat refused to sign a contract on the club's terms and said he would retire from baseball.

TAKE THIRD GAME

GASDEN, Ga., March 30.—The Detroit Tigers gained their third victory over Rochester yesterday, winning 13 to 3.

JACKSON WINS

DETROIT, March 30.—(Chronicle) Jackson of Detroit, defeated Earl Lockbaum of Pittsburgh in two non-catch cushion league games last night. The scores were 50 to 28 and 50 to 40.

RUTH HITS HOMER

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—Babe Ruth hit a homer over the right field fence, but the Yanks behind rookie pitching, lost to the New Orleans team ten to two.

PICKS WINNER

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 30.—Bancroft, Giant captain, predicted that the club was sure to win the pennant this year, as the McLeans team prepared to break camp.

GEORGE IS OUT

TAMPA, Fla., March 30.—Manager Bush's troubles with the Washington pitching staff increased today when George McGreig, leading south-paw who was believed to be in good condition, suddenly developed a sore arm.

Burbank is helping in the south's ball weevil fight. Again we suggest that make weevils lazy by crossing them with bookworms.

FROM BAT BOY TO STAR PLAYER

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 30.—From a minor league bat boy to a player in the majors.

There is a nip-bell you have the career of Johnny Kerr, sensational "fruit" shortstop of the Detroit Tigers.

Not so many years ago Johnny Kerr was mascot for the San Francisco team of the Pacific Coast League. Able from piloting the team to victory as its mascot his chief duty was taking care of the bats in the morning, and before the game when not engaged in his official capacity as mascot, Kerr was playing baseball, always at short.

Only his presence on the infield was desired, he was in the way of the players who would suggest that he was in the outfield, but never of that for Johnny Kerr.

In Kerr's private at shortstop, he was a kid who was a mascot in life was to be a player. He was a mascot in life was to be a player. He was a mascot in life was to be a player.

70 Players Are Training

BRADENTOWN, Fla., March 30.—Perhaps the biggest aggregation of ball players ever gathered at one training camp is doing daily stunts at this resort.

Manager Rickey and some 40 of his athletes, representing the St. Louis Cardinals, are on the job. The other 30 are under contract to the Syracuse club of the International League, which is understood to be controlled by the owners of the St. Louis Cardinals.

No doubt Manager Rickey arranged the joint training trip, so that he could look over both teams, with a hope that the Syracuse club might discover some recruit worth his big league consideration.

Incidentally in this way Rickey can determine the players on the Syracuse club who lack the necessary ability to maintain the International League standard.

In order to give Syracuse a strong team the Cardinals players just shy of major league ability will be turned over to that club.

Never have so many ball players been on one field at the same time, except possibly on some college athletic field. However, Rickey seemed to delight in going from one squad to another, correcting a fault here, changing the style of some pitcher, or offering some general advice on a certain feature of play.

Certainly no bunch of players in either major league goes through a more intensive training than do the St. Louis Cardinals and Syracuse Internationals.

CITY RECORDS FALL

DALLAS, March 30.—Two city records fell in the annual city championship track and field meet between the four local high schools, which started yesterday. They were: Texas high, North Dallas high, javelin throw, 144 feet, 2 inches; Balchok, Bryan high, discus, 102 feet, 4 inches. At the close of yesterday's schedule, Bryan led the field with 16 points against 11 for Forest High, 6 for North Dallas and 2 for Oak Cliff.

REGULARS STEP UP

HOT SPRINGS, March 30.—Bohler and Kuntz showed great effectiveness and the Pirates regulars again defeated the second team 13 to 2.

BREAK CHEST COLDS WITH RED PEPPER

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Peel a bad cold loose in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and so, stiff joints relief comes at once. The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested sore is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known. Always say "Rowles"—all.

BRANCH RICKEY BELIEVES CARDINALS WILL BE FAST CONTINGENT THIS SEASON

Evans Finds Big Chief With Almost Apparent Opinion St. Louis Will Take Pennant; Reviews Reverses

BY BILLY EVANS

BRADENTOWN, Fla., March 30.—Manager Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals is positive that his team will be in the running for the pennant.

While he refuses to even insinuate that he will win it, there is an undercurrent to his remarks that make you understand he feels he has a real chance.

At this time last year Rickey openly declared that the team that beat out the Cardinals would win the pennant. At several stages of the race it looked as if the Cardinals would come through. The route, however, was too long for the team to stand up under the reverses that came from time to time.

"Last year was the big opportunity for me and my club," remarked Rickey to me as we walked from the ball park to the hotel after the Cardinals had trimmed the Braves 4 to 3 in a game that was a big league affair in every way.

"The Cardinals should have won last year. It was the big chance. With an even break we would have won."

"The loss of Outfielder McHenry was a terrific blow. McHenry, one of the finest fellows in baseball, and a great outfielder, meant much to my team."

"All last year McHenry suffered from a tumor on the brain that eventually caused him to go blind and resulted in his death. My heart bleeds as I think of how that poor boy tried to play when he was totally unfit. His goodness hurt, not only himself, but his team as well."

"Always a great fighter McHenry lost a dozen games simply because the poor boy was playing with a greatly impaired vision that caused him to miff and misjudge the easiest kind of chances."

"If we lost a dozen games because McHenry tried to play when physically unfit, we lost at least twice as many because he wasn't in the lineup in his usual good condition."

"It is impossible to compute the loss of McHenry to my club last year. Aside from his inability to play his game, his absence from the lineup affected the morale of the entire club, as he was perhaps the most popular boy on the team. All the other players loved him."

"However, I would have been willing to lose a dozen pennants, if in so doing I could have saved McHenry to baseball. His death was a distinct loss."

"And then there was the case of Bill Dook. I expected big things from him. It was our tough luck for him to have one of the worst years of his entire career. He won only 11 games and I had counted on at least 20."

"For a stretch of something like 16 successive games he failed to go further than the sixth inning. The psychology of having so great a pitcher as Dook, taken out day after day, didn't do the rest of the staff any good."

"The illness of John Lavan at short also hurt. No club can lose its regular shortstop and not suffer severely. The smoothness of an infield revolves around the shortstop."

"Last year was the big year. I think of it. This year is another year."

"I feel that Myers will greatly help our team. He will play in McHenry's place. I look for Fred Toney to strengthen the pitching staff. The former Giant is in fine shape. Some of my veterans are slowing up, but I am hopeful that several recruits will fill in the gaps, should any of my good ones go."

the veteran regulars fail me. "We will certainly be a contender this year, but I refuse to predict a pennant as I did a year ago."

Lee Meadows, Veteran Hurler of Phillies, is To Remain With the Team

LEESBURG, Fla., March 30.—Pitching is the main hope of every big league manager.

On that score Manager Fletcher of the Phillies cannot do much boasting. His staff hardly measures up to the big league standards.

The veteran Lee Meadows, the best-spectacular twirler, is his sure bet. Meadows has about become convinced that there is no chance for him to be traded to New York and may be content to make the best of the situation in Philly.

As his second best bet, Fletcher offers "Lefty" Weimer. For several years Weimer has been toiling for the Phillies with indifferent success. Fletcher is convinced that Weimer has arrived and that he will prove it beyond a doubt the coming season.

BANISHED PUGS CAN COME BACK

Both Must Face Fast Scrap-pers, Though

NEW YORK, March 30.—Johnny Wilson and Johnny Kilbane, those two champions of "Barren Island," can be paroled back to their former holdings if they will agree to be one champion and to fight, according to the latest edict of William Muldoon, chairman of the New York boxing commission.

All that Kilbane has to do to bring the official sanction of the commission on him is to fight Johnny Dundee and Wilson can win his way back into grace by fighting Harry Grob.

Kilbane is signed to fight the European champion, Eugene Criqui, at the Polo Grounds on June 2. Cleveland Irishman is going to get a fair purse, and he no doubt will not care to take any chances with the tough Dundee who once held him in a 20-round draw when both were in their prime.

Tom O'Rourke, who arranged the Kilbane-Criqui match, is going ahead with his arrangements and he insists that he has a trump hand that will force the commission to let the bout go on. Muldoon is equally insistent that it cannot be held, and up to the present time Muldoon has had an opportunity to act.

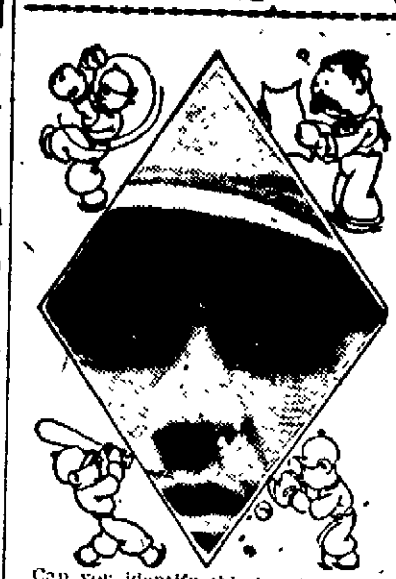

Wilson is in a peculiar predicament. He doesn't want to fight Grob and from the attitude that Grob took in refusing to make the weight for Dave Rosenberg the former light heavyweight champion is no longer desirous of working in the middleweight class.

Another curious move of the commission's chairman was the approval of Joe McAniff, the Detroit heavyweight, as the next opponent for Luis Firpo, the South American giant.

Tom Gibbons had a fight arranged with McAniff for March 19 in Madison Square Garden and Muldoon stepped in and said the bout could be held until McAniff had something here to prove that he was what his management claimed him to be.

Several, who seem now to think that a Firpo-McAniff match is all right, yelled to the skies that larceny or something of the kind was about to be perpetrated when Gibbons was getting ready for the fight.

DIAMOND PUZZLES NO. 12

Can you identify this baseball player? This is the last of the dozen diamond puzzles printed consecutively by The News. Save your answers and send in the 12 best two-prize-winners will be announced Saturday, April 7.

Here's a soft one, boys. You just can't afford to miss it. This bird is rated as one of the best game ever produced at his position. He has had more than his share of good luck, also a little bad. Been in a couple of world series, but with different clubs. Has a peculiar style. If some buster making his big league debut sprung the same stance the first thing the manager would give him would be a ticket to the old home town. Despite this unusual feature of his makeup he is rated a good hitter and often places himself in the select 300.

BATHING GIRLS TRAIN FOR BIG BEACH CONTEST

Galveston Expecting Mermaids From 10 States

GALVESTON, Texas, March 30.—More beauty than has ever been judged in any contest in the Southwest is anticipated May 12 when the Fourth Annual Bathing Girls Regatta at Galveston Beach is held, judging by the advance entries and photographs in the hands of the Galveston Beach association.

Girls from New Mexico, Kansas, Oklahoma, Idaho, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Minnesota and Iowa have already entered this year's regatta and more entries are being received daily, according to F. C. Bailey, the new manager of the beach.

In addition to the regatta, the Beach association is this year planning a big "Bathing Week" and Baby Regatta in August; a beauty contest in September, and a big automobile race meet in December. The resort will be open all the year round, thus entering into competition with Florida and California resorts.

Last year the Bathing Girl Regatta was attended by more than 100,000 persons and more than $3,000 in prizes were awarded. This year, it is anticipated, will prove doubled, the crowd will be larger than that of 1922.

BAD BREATH

Sallow Skin, Sick Headaches

Are very disagreeable, both to yourself and to those with whom you come in contact. In the majority of cases bad breath is caused by a disordered stomach accompanied by sallow skin and sick headaches or some form of indigestion, with the result that the food you eat irritates the stomach tissues and leads to a condition which sometimes becomes very dangerous.

There are two methods to relieve this condition. Either the offenders can go without food for a considerable time, or can eat what they like and counteract the bad effects of the food, and prevent the formation of gas, or the pains of heartburn by the use of EAT-AS-U-LIK.

EAT-AS-U-LIK has proven to be a safe and reliable indigestion remedy. Produced from the formula of a stomach specialist, it affords instant relief for indigestion, sour acid stomach, heartburn, gas on the stomach and any kindred ills.

EAT-AS-U-LIK is sold under a positive guarantee. For a limited time the Corner Drug Store, Hart Drug Store, and Owl Drug Store of this city will sell three 50c bottles of EAT-AS-U-LIK for $1.00 (the price of 1.00). If after taking one bottle the purchaser is not satisfied, he may take the two remaining bottles back to the drug store, unopened, and his $1.00 will be refunded.

SCHOOL CONCERT SHOWS ARTISTRY

Musical and Skit Program Brings Down House

Before an audience that filled Franklin school auditorium, the Port Arthur school bands Thursday night presented their Concert Unique under the direction of L. Lantz, band conductor and instructor in the city schools.

From start to finish the program was enthusiastically received, and comments on the excellent performance of the players, in ensemble and individually, were heard on all sides. Those who heard the band Thursday night for the first time declared they were more than agreeably surprised at the organization's playing.

Novelty Features

The second half of the program, made up of novelties, kept the audience in a continuous uproar of mirth. "Three o'Clock in the Morning," played by a "bottle chorus," was enjoyed until Conductor Lantz came before the curtain and explained that "we have only one record of that, and we just dropped it and broke it."

Injection of a little play-by-play in James Colars and Paul Lovejoy's piccolo and clarinet duet of Dvorak's "Humoresque," when the clarinet player went wandering off into a solo and until "pulled up" by the piccolo player, literally "brought down the house."

Miss Eula Sanders, music teacher at Franklin school, played the piano accompaniment for the duet. A surprise "organ solo," by "Herr Huns Cartfield," was another humorous feature. Going through various contortions before a painted organ, the long-haired "Herr Huns" apparently drew stirring music from his instrument. Then the "organ" suddenly fell to pieces, leaving "Herr Huns" playing on a black suit case, and a saxophone band of 25 pieces was revealed as the organ pipes.

Solo numbers were given by Master Wiley Hall Steen, cornetist in the band, playing the intermezzo from "Mazurka," "Cavalleria Rusticana," accompanied by Mrs. Overton Able at the piano; Miss Horace Smith, director of music in the city schools, who sang "Our Yesterdays," by Leeley, with band accompaniment; and Lantz's marimba solo, "Viking," by King, with band accompaniment.

Miss Leona Deitz, dramatic instructor in the high school, gave several readings between the first and second parts of the program. She was called back for several encores and included a piano-reading in her selections.

Lantz chose a march by King, "Garland Entrance," for opening the program, following this number with another ensemble, Dabney's Overture. The "Princess of India Overture" was given just before Sousa's "American Patrol," and the program closed with Kluge's "Billboard."

PROBING INTO MYSTERY SLAYING OF NEW YORK MODEL

Evidence uncovered by New York authorities, police say, indicate Dorothy Keenan (or King), a model, met her death by chloroform administered by organized gang of blackmailers who conspired to extort money from John Kearsley Mitchell, wealthy Philadelphian. This picture taken in the prosecutor's office in the course of the investigation shows, left to right: Neilson Alcott, Mitchell's attorney; John Kearsley Mitchell, and Acting District Attorney F. Pecora of New York.

TOUGH TIME COMING FOR THE ENTIRE WORLD IF THIS SWEDISH SEER IS CORRECT

Man Who 'Predicted' World War Says U. S. Will Have Five Wars in Next Thirty Years

By United Press.

BERLIN, March 30.—Anton Johanson, the little old Swedish farmer who predicted the world war, now declares the United States will, during the next thirty years, wage five great wars.

One of these will result from complications in Canada and the other four will be civil wars. Johanson's predictions to date have been accurate. He isn't the average kind of professional seer. His new prophecies have, therefore, aroused the greatest interest.

His predictions cover the happenings throughout the world for the next 30 years. They tell of great international wars, unprecedented plagues, revolutions and massacres.

Among the things Johanson predicted in 1913 were: Belgium would be "the nail in Germany's coffin." Great plagues, including "Spanish influenza."

"The world war and the defeat of the German forces."

Now disorders in Ireland (He isn't given much credit for this prediction, however.)

And now Johanson predicts:

Five wars in America.

A great English-Indian war, about 1925, beginning with uprisings in Northern India. The decision will be reached in Delhi and Calcutta, after 25,000,000 have lost their lives.

The Indians will literally drive the English into the sea, after which India will tear herself from Britain's grasp and Egypt and Africa will follow her example.

Then France and Spain will battle on Spanish soil in 1930. Johanson does not predict who will win.

During the next thirty years Germany will witness a series of bloody visions—the first as early as 1907. In 1913 he came to Berlin and was received by a dozen professors, journalists, clergy and court ladies, including the wife of General von Nolke. He told them what he had seen in his visions. They scoffed at him. He attempted to gain an audience with the German kaiser and other European rulers, but was not received. He visited Christiania and Stockholm and was scorned. He returned to his farm where, in September, 1917, he handed some German fishermen a sealed letter addressed to the kaiser, who never received it. He wished to warn the ruler of impending defeat.

And now that he has proved himself accurate during the last decade, his listeners have begun wondering just how much of his gloomy and pessimistic predictions may come true in the next three decades.

Other revolutions are scheduled for England, Russia, Austria, China and overseas colonies.

In 1923 France will invade Norway and Russia will overrun Sweden.

Great plagues will sweep the world during this time. Another Spanish influenza plague will be easily controlled. After the English-Indian war a new disease, against which medical science will be helpless, will devastate Europe, especially Russia.

This disease will first cause one to go blind and then insane.

The third epidemic will follow the Spanish-French war—a lung disease—which will wipe out one-fourth of the world's population. France's entire younger generation will die.

Before the war Johanson had his

It was nice of a German police dog to locate booze in Washington, but we claim he should be at home biting Frenchmen.

Miss Zeigler, who was 20, lived with her parents.

The young woman had informed friends she "would marry Burnham at any time." Sudden disclosure of the fact that he was married so believed to have driven her temporarily insane.

Miss Zeigler went to Burnham's office yesterday afternoon. She obtained admittance and laid in wait for the contractor for two hours. When he entered she engaged him in whispered conversation and then shot him with an ancient derringer, turning the weapon upon herself, dying instantly. Burnham lived until today.
